

Welfare Center Seeks Help for Colored Women

The Educational and Welfare center of Evanston is filling a long felt need in the life of the colored young woman employed on the north shore. This institution was organized and opened June 14, 1928 by Miss Bessie M. Garrison, a graduate student at Northwestern university.

Here the industrial or business woman finds comfortable rooms with a homelike atmosphere. Here the young woman who is employed along the north shore may come Thursdays and Sundays and find a cordial welcome. Here she may meet her friends and find an uplifting association. Her mail may be sent to her here.

The work is meeting the approval of welfare and civic leaders of the community and receiving their co-operation. The center is appealing for a donation of supplies that it may be equipped to render more efficient service.

The present needs of the center are: 10 pillows, 15 comforts and blankets, 30 single sheets, 30 pillow cases, 30 bath towels, 30 hand towels, 10 roller towels, 15 buff colored window shades, 30 inches wide, 6 buff colored window shades, 36 inches wide, 1 buff colored shade, 50 inches wide, 1 dozen cups and saucers, 3 brooms, 2 dish pans, 6 straight chairs, rugs, pails.

Contributors are asked to deliver their supplies to 1115 Ayars place, Evanston, or to phone Miss Bessie M. Garrison at Greenleaf 2542.

George Dasch Succeeds H. E. Knapp in Symphony

To take the place of Prof. Harold E. Knapp who resigned his position of head of the Northwestern University Symphony orchestra, George Dasch has been appointed director.

Mr. Dasch is the conductor of the Little Symphony in Chicago and has been in the past a member of the organization he will now direct. Another of his musical activities is the arranging of the Sunday afternoon concerts at the Chicago Art institute.

Organization of the orchestra for this year will start toward the end of the month and it is expected that three concerts will be given by the group during the next year.

Dudley Crafts Watson to Give Lecture Series

Much interest is being shown during these early fall weeks in the lectures to be given by Dudley Crafts Watson under the sponsorship of the North Shore Art league at Winnetka Community House. These lectures are held Monday evenings and the first of the series will be given either the first or the second Monday in October. Mr. Watson has but recently returned after an extensive European trip from which those who attend his lectures will undoubtedly benefit through his interesting experiences.

UNIVERSITY CLUB OPENS

A dinner meeting at Maillard's, 310 South Michigan avenue, Chicago, at 6:30 o'clock Friday, September 14, began the year's activities of the Woman's University club of Chicago. Mrs. Wood Simons of Evanston is president of the club, Mrs. Harold L. Ickes of Hubbard Woods is a member of the board, and Mrs. Merle B. Snyder of Wilmette is recording secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Wells and their children, who have spent the summer visiting in England, returned last Tuesday to their home at 259 Ridge avenue.

IN STUDY CLASS

About twenty women are enrolled in a study class being conducted Tuesday mornings at the home of Mrs. A. Montague Ferry on Ridge avenue. The class this week, however, met with Mrs. R. C. McNamara, 267 Ridge avenue.

Keep Furnishings Free of Summer Dust

With the Hoover Dusting Tools you can reach every corner, high or low, and remove thoroughly the film of summer dust that sifts in upon woodwork, draperies, upholstered furniture, lamps, pictures and bookshelves.

And with The Hoover itself and its exclusive cleaning principle "Positive Agitation," you can keep rugs and carpets spick-and-span through all the summer months of open windows and doors.

You can now get "Positive Agitation," not only in the de luxe Model 700 but in the popular-priced Model 543 as well. Liberal allowance for your old cleaner.
