Critic's Hostess

Mrs. A. Starr Best, founder and vice-president of the National Drama league, is among those entertaining Walter Pritchard Eaton, New York dramatic critic, who is in Chicago this week in interest of the New York Theater guild which will appeal in Evanston soon. Monday afternoon she opened her new home for a reception in his honor at which Mr. Eaton talked drama, comparing Shaw and O'Neil and telling about the guild. She is assisting in the reception for Mr. Eaton to be given by the Chicago Drama league tomorrow at the Blackstone.

A tea in Mrs. Best's honor will be given at the Chicago Y. W. C. A. Sept. 30 when Mrs. Best will speak to this group which is now forming a Little Theater.

Miss Jacqueline Hawxhurst of Essex road, Kenilworth has left for Sacred Heart academy at Lake Forest.

Evanston Gardeners Enter Exhibits in Wilmette Display

Flowers from Evanston gardens, arranged in varied displays, were entered in the flower show of the Wilmette Garden club, held Friday at the home of Mrs. Frank Scheidenhelm in Wilmette.
