

Rabbi L. J. Kopald Presides at Jewish Holiday Ceremonies

Rabbi Louis J. Kopald, who was installed last week at the North Shore Congregation Israel church in Glencoe, is officiating at the Jewish holiday services being held in that church this week.

Rosh Hoshanah (New Year's), started last night and is observed by Reform Judaism groups throughout the city. Services at the North Shore Congregation Israel, which is attended by Reform Jews, started last night at 8:15 o'clock and were to be held this morning at ten o'clock. Last night Rabbi Kopald spoke on "The Challenge." Today his subject is "The Charge."

Yom Kippur, or the Day of Atonement, begins next Sunday night, September 23, to continue through Monday.

Missionary to China Leaves at Noon Today

Rev. Paul R. Reynolds, missionary to China from the Winnetka Congregational church, who, with his family, has been home for a prolonged stay, will depart today at 12:10 p. m., standard time, from the Union station, Chicago, for Seattle, from whence they will sail September 22, on the President Pierce, for China.

H. Nakutin Opens New Winnetka Tailor Shop

H. Nakutin, Monarch Tailors, who has been operating stores on the north shore for twenty years, has opened a new Monarch Tailors store at 149 Tower road, Winnetka. Mr. Nakutin also has stores in Glencoe and Evanston.

HOME FROM EAST

Mrs. Donald McPherson and her children returned to their home at 644 Pine street ten days ago. Fannie and Donald had been in camp in the East all summer and Mrs. McPherson had been visiting in various New England states. Fannie is leaving again next Tuesday to enter Miss Hall's school in Pittsfield for the year.

Miss Ella Kroeschell, who has many friends in Winnetka, and the family with whom she has been living for the past two years in Copenhagen, Denmark, are coming here early in October. They will be at the Homestead in Evanston.

HOME FROM CHARLEVOIX

The Frederick H. Scotts of 175 Sheridan road, who have spent most of the summer at the Chicago club, Charlevoix, returned home ten days ago. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Keep (Isabel Scott) who spent the summer with them, left this week to motor east where they will take up their residence in Sheffield, Mass. Mr. Keep is one of the masters at Berkshire school which is located there.

LEAVES FOR COLLEGE

Charles Clifford Schwartz of 187 Ridge avenue, who was a guest of the Frank Ferry's at Land O'Lakes, Wis., returned home a week ago and left last Monday night for Northfield, Minn., where he attends Carleton college.

Ann Jeffries of 811 Bryant avenue entertained eight boys and girls at a swimming party and dinner at the Vista del Lago last Thursday in celebration of her eleventh birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Case are enjoying a brief vacation, motoring through northern Wisconsin and are spending two or three weeks at Eagle River.
