

Nowhere else in Chicago — and but a limited opportunity here

900

MICHIGAN
AVENUE
NORTH

For discriminating Chicagoans who have tired of mere hotel living every Winter we suggest a permanent personal apartment in this distinguished building. Quiet, Privacy, Luxury. Complete domestic and restaurant services — butlers, maids, valets, laundresses at your call. Literally — a new way of living in Town. Arrangements of from 1 to 10 rooms at monthly tariffs of $150 to $1000.

Make inquiry of the

RENTING OFFICE

126 East Delaware Place

ROSS & BROWNE • Managing Agents

Superior 4000

Postal Employees Attend Wedding of Howard Dickau

A wedding in which Winnetka postal employees played leading roles was solemnized at Christ church Parish House September 1, at 3 o'clock, when Howard Dickau, clerk at the Winnetka post office, and Miss Alma Hill, of Seymour, Wis., were united in marriage by Rev. R. Malcom Ward.

The bride was attended by Miss Louise Lierich, of Seymour, Wis., and John Schinler, superintendent of mails at the Winnetka post office, was best man.

Postmaster J. C. Braun and Elmer E. Adams, former postmaster of Winnetka, were witnesses to the ceremony, following which the wedding party was served a dinner at the E. E. Adams home, 873 Oak street, where Mr. Dickau and his bride will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Dickau, accompanied by Miss Lierich, left this morning on their honeymoon trip, which also is Mr. Dickau's annual two weeks' vacation from his postal duties. They will first stop at Mrs. Dickau's home, at Seymour, from whence they will go to Ontario to visit Mr. Dickau's parents.

They will be at home after October 1.

IN RECITAL OCTOBER 14

Marie Sidenius Zendt, soprano, and Amy Niell, violinist, will give a recital at the Playhouse on Sunday, October 14, at 3 o'clock. Edgar Nelson will be at the piano, and the concert is under the management of Bertha Ott.

SOPRANO BROADCASTS

Hazel Bell Risk of Winnetka, dramatic soprano, was heard over radio station WIBO last Friday evening in two groups of songs and will sing again next Tuesday morning over WHT, giving a short recital.

Howard Carpenter Wins Fell Trophy and Championship

The Fell's cup trophy, around which interest has centered during the summer at Winnetka Playfield Golf course, was won by Howard Carpenter, and with the victory also goes the championship of the course for 1928.

The final match was played last Sunday between Carpenter and W. Washburne, a 36 hole event in which the former won 6 up and 5 to go.

The rules governing this popular trophy provide that it shall be won three seasons in succession to entitle permanent ownership.

The cup was posted this season by S. Fell, of 786 Elm street, dealer in men's furnishings, and is one of the most coveted prizes ever offered at Skokie Playfield.

LEAVES WINNETKA

Word has been received that Mrs. J. C. Kilgore has arrived at her home near Portland, Ore. Mrs. Kilgore spent most of the summer with her niece, Mrs. Julian G. Risk of 787 Foxdale avenue, after the death of her husband, the late John Calvin Kilgore, formerly of Chicago. Prior to his death Mr. Kilgore was a beloved member of the Thomas post of the G. A. R. and for nearly forty years a director of the R. C. Crane company.

RETURNING FROM ALASKA

Mrs. C. E. Galloway of 940 Private road, Winnetka, will return today from a trip to Alaska. Her aunt, Miss Sarah Hager of Xenia, Ohio will be with her. They stopped at Banff and Lake Louise on their return.

Mrs. Charles L. Trumbull and her children returned to their home at 390 Linden avenue last Monday after a summer spent at Old Mission, Mich.

EXCEPTIONAL APARTMENTS

at

MODERATE RENTALS

A number of desirable one, two and three room apartments are available in the new Smith Building, corner of Chestnut Street and Chestnut Court, at rentals of from $58 to $85 per month. All apartments have all outside rooms with cross ventilation. They are equipped with Universal Gas Ranges and Cabranettes, Frigidaire, Roll-a-way Beds, and the most modern lighting fixtures, casement windows, etc. The corridors are richly carpeted, and paneled, the entire building is sound-proofed, and is heated with Vapor Heat. Located within the business district, these apartments are nevertheless well lighted and airy. Frontage on non-traffic court, Chestnut Street and owner's vacant property make these apartments doubly desirable. Open now for inspection—ready for October occupancy.

—♦ ALSO ♦—

There are four splendid stores for rent at most attractive prices. Space is free from columns, etc., is well lighted, and has private delivery entrance. One corner store and three fronting on Chestnut Street may be leased for October 1st. The favorable leases offered make prompt inquiry imperative.

JOHN SMITH

CHESTNUT STREET
AT CHESTNUT COURT

PHONE WINNETKA 112