Baseball Season Near Close

Tomorrow, at Skokie Playfield, the Winnetka baseball team which is now nearing the close of what has proven the best season in local baseball history, will meet the strong Glencoe team, which has also been an equally ardent contender for north shore honors on the diamond. Winnetka, during the season, has had included in its schedule of games, some of the best semi-pro teams in the Chicago area. The team has won its share of games and has enjoyed the hearty support of an enthusiastic fandom. The usual large turnout is anticipated for tomorrow to witness the Winnetka-Glencoe match.

Christ Church Setting for Wedding Ceremony

Christ church, Winnetka was the scene of the marriage on Thursday evening, September 20, of Miss Ethelwynne Hope Penwith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Penwith of Chicago, to Elisha Paxton Whitehead, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Kynoch of Lake Bluff. The reception following the ceremony was held at the North Shore hotel.

The wedding party was made up of Miss Blanche Brown of Bloomington, Ill., the maid of honor; Mrs. Frederick Hagen of Eyanston, Miss Shirley McKay of Highland Park, the bridesmaids; Laird Heggland of Lake Bluff, who served as best man, and John Morrell Penwith, Robert Grusenday, of Chicago, John Cuyler Baker, Jr., of Lake Bluff, and Robert Bartlett of LaGrange, the ushers.

The Whiteheads, both of whom attended the University of Illinois, will make their home at 1413 1/2 Sherwin avenue, Rogers Park.

Senior Music Club in First Meeting of Year

The Senior Music club of New Trier Township High school held its first meeting of the school year at the home of Miss Jane Willard in Wilmette, Thursday night of this week. The program included the following numbers: violin solo by Effie James, piano solo by Patricia Goodhue, cello solo by Rose Fieman, and vocal solo by Robert Brown. The Junior Music club of New Trier will hold its first meeting of the year next week.

Interest Centers
In Play for Roche
Drug Company Cup

With two of the three cup trophies of the Winnetka Playfield Gold course safely stored for another year, interest is now centered in the three remaining rounds, including the final, to determine who is entitled to the pretty Dirigold cup which was posted this season by the Roche Drug Co., of Hubbard Woods.

In the second round play for this trophy, last Saturday and Sunday, F. E. Mullen defeated C. Waterton, 6 and 5; W. Wolter beat J. Belmont, 1 up; Jim Whitaker won over A. McDougal, 2 up; C. Kreger defeated F. Belmont, 2 and 1; H. Carpenter beat E. Hartshorn, 1 up on the 19th hole; L. M. Shaw defeated W. Shuster, 8 up and 6 to play.

Entrants who have not completed their rounds, as per schedule, should hasten to do so or they will be disqualified, it is announced.

The Roche cup, including the base, is 22 inches high and is proving one of the most coveted trophies of the season.

Weil, Shearer Win Blind
Bogey Tournament Prizes

In the blind bogey tournament at Skokie Playfield, Saturday and Sunday, E. M. Weil and W. G. Shearer each won five golf balls, first prize, with an 84; George Sunderland and F. Wolter were second, with an 86, each receiving three golf balls, and J. H. Rowe, with an 88, was third. He also received three golf balls.
