"WHAT THE WELL DRESSED MAN WILL WEAR THIS FALL"

First, I would like to take up hats for the fall. The grey soft hat will be most popular, then the pecan shade of tan, and then deep brown. Brims are getting narrower in both welt and raw edge, with high tapering Homburg crowns. Some brims are as narrow as two inches, and others from 2 1/8 to 2 1/4. The curled bound brim Homburg hat is also smaller of brim, is tapered well at the sides and will be worn more as a formal day dress hat than for other purposes.

Correct Homburg Style

Every line is right—has balance, poise—an ease and nonchalance that is part of a gentleman's make-up.

Teacher-Dancer

Miss Marian Keeney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parke J. Keeney of 523 Hawthorne lane, Winnetka, whose type of dance instruction has created general interest in her Winnetka school during the past year, will reopen her studios October 6.

She is now in Los Angeles where she is taking intensive training with Ernest Nelcher, California's famous instructor; Katharine Edson, former national director of the Denishawn school, exponent of dance drama, projection of personality, and the art of gesture; and Norma Gould, pantomimist and authority on children's dancing. Miss Keeney will return to Winnetka about October 1.
