

CLUB IS REORGANIZED

Breakers Beach Members Modify Plans and Agree on Assessment to Build Fine Family Club

Members of the Breakers Beach club, of which W. L. McKay of Evanston is president, and many north shore residents are members, have just completed plans for the modification of their organization since its purchase from the original promoters.

The new plans call for the abandonment of the twelve-story hotel building which was to have been erected. Instead, a club of ample proportions will be built from the present unit for purely social and recreational purposes. It is to be a family club of representative north shore people and will have none of the bizarre, Coney Island atmosphere that, it was feared, would follow the original project.

Since the club is now under the management of a Board of Directors composed of north shore business men, the personnel and regulations will be based upon highest ideals. The board expects to finish the entry and grounds around the building with driveways, parking space and landscaping to make it, on the whole, an attractive spot.

At a recent meeting of the members an assessment of $250, plus tax, was voted to carry on the modified project. Following the payment of the required assessments and dues, memberships will be allowed only after each applicant has had the approval of the Board of Admissions and a waiting list will be inaugurated.

It was announced this week that a general meeting of the club membership will be held Tuesday evening, September 25, at 8 o'clock, at the Haven school, Evanston, to discuss plans of the club building.

Lay Cornerstone Sunday of Theological Seminary

Laying of the cornerstone of the Western Theological seminary at the southwest corner of Sheridan road and Haven street, Evanston, will take place Sunday afternoon at 3:30, and will mark another notable addition to Evanston as an educational center.

The Rt. Rev. Charles Palmerston Anderson, LL.D., bishop of Chicago and president of the board of trustees of the seminary, will officiate. President Walter Dill Scott of Northwestern and the deans of the schools of the university will join in a procession from the deanery at 2145 Orrington avenue to the cornerstone site.

Others in the march will be Mayor Charles H. Bartlett, Episcopal clergy of Evanston, Bishop Sheldon M. Griswold, Bishop Anderson, Dr. William C. De Witt, president of the seminary; and Dean Frederick C. Grant.

Mrs. C. H. Coffin and her children returned recently from Pocono Lake preserve in Pennsylvania where they spent the summer.

Miss Charlotte Erwin, 615 Warwick road, Kenilworth left on Wednesday, September 12, for Vassar college, where she is entering as a freshman.

MEETINGS

Friday, September 21: Junior Young People.
Monday at 7:30: Choir meeting.
Wednesday at 7:30: Boy Scouts, Troop 6.

The members of both the Senior and the Junior Walther league societies are very busy these days polishing off the edges for their respective plays which are to be given jointly at the Sunday school rooms on Thursday and Friday evening, September 27 and 28. The proceeds are for the chancel fund.

The annual Mission Festival of the church is to be celebrated on Sunday morning and evening, September 30, with two morning and one evening service. Pastor E. F. Schueler of Milwaukee will deliver the missionary address in the two morning services and Pastor Arthur Werfelmann of Immanuel Lutheran church, Glen View, will preach in the evening. The members of St. John's will please bear in mind that a good part of our budget for missionary purposes is still to be raised and contribute accordingly.
