

The Voters' Column

by Hoyt King

That the Special Grand Jury and Special State's Attorneys are getting results is evidenced this week by the beginning of trial of seventeen of Morris Eller's followers on charges of conspiracy to commit fraud, violence and murder at the April primary. They include his nephew and chauffeur. There are a state senator and a former policeman from State's Attorney's Crowe's office in the list.

While Morris Eller and his son, Judge Eller, charged as leading conspirators, will secure a separate trial before another judge, the separate conviction of their friends in an immediate trial may greatly embarrass the Ellers. It will leave no question in the minds of the public of the guilt of Morris Eller, candidate for Drainage Trustee, and his son, the judge. Their political activities will be ended.

While this trial is conducted by Special State's Attorneys, it is perhaps the only one that will be. Hence the importance of electing a State's Attorney who will carry on the work of a clean-up such as Judge John A. Swanson assures us he will do.

Each local community is now being organized to get out the vote for Judge Swanson and complete the work begun by the citizens' uprising in the primaries.

The Small Hat

Has Three Ways
To Be Smart:

As the brim goes, so goes the smartness of the small hat. Sometimes it is manipulated in turban style, often it is up off-the-face, and again down over one ear. Our collections portray this three-way smartness.

MEN ARE TURNING TO THIS RIMLESS STYLE

Inconspicuous + Dignified + Good Looking

Few men now are to be seen with the heavy shell rimmed glasses at social affairs, or on the street...but only at home reading or when engaged in sports.

Rimless styles such as the Colonial shown above, and the Puritan are most favored although the Oval and Leaf shapes are most becoming to some.
