"Jazz Singer" Sets New Record at the Varsity

The new perfected Vitaphone which opened with the "Jazz Singer" broke all attendance records at the Varsity theater this week. Not since Lubliner and Trinz took over the house, according to Manager Murphy, has there been such a large attendance.

The Vitaphone installation was declared to be the most perfect in the entire Chicago area. The effect, according to electrical experts who made the installation, is due both to the fact that the perfected Vitaphone is being used and the fact that the theater was originally built with perfect acoustics.

Sally Phipps Stars in Teatro del Lago Film This Saturday

In "None But the Brave," featuring Charles Morton and Sally Phipps, which will be shown at the Teatro del Lago this Saturday, September 22, the high spot is an international beauty pageant, filmed in color and said to be a revelation in the matter of progress made in color photography. Twelve beauties were selected for the pageant from several thousand of Hollywood's prettiest. They are: Sally Phipps, Eleanor Black, Jacqueline Wells, Edna Sumida, Leaota Winters, Ada Williams, Lola Salvi, Irene Murray, Virginia Parent, Diane Dare, Marguerite Andrus, and Betty Lorraine. In the aggregate these girls have won more than 100 beauty contests.

Which type of girl does the modern man want for his wife, the old fashioned, or the flapper? The answer to this question is to be found at the Teatro del Lago this Sunday in "Don't Marry," with Lois Moran and Neil Hamilton. It is the story of the delightful romance of Priscilla Bowen, who, despite her puritanical surroundings, is a product of the modern age. Miss Moran, in the role of Priscilla, is given a large scope for her versatility, and her treatment of the comedy situations is subtle and well timed. Neil Hamilton, as the confirmed bachelor who succumbs to Priscilla's charms, is excellent foil for Miss Moran.

"The Garden of Eden," with Corinne Griffith, Louise Dressler, Charles Ray, and others, comes to the Teatro del Lago Monday for two days. It is a light and whimsical comedy drama, all very spirited and charmingly presented. It is chiefly concerned with the activities of Toni Le Brun, a baker's niece, played by Miss Griffith, who receives a musical diploma and leaves Vienna for Budapest, believing herself engaged to sing in grand opera. Instead she finds herself booked to entertain in a naughty cafe, and what takes place thereafter is delightfully interesting.

A laughter romance on which metropolitan reviewers have placed the stamp of approval, "The Play Girl," is to be shown at the Teatro del Lago next Wednesday, September 26. Madge Bellamy stars in the title role. The story deals with the life of a little shop girl tired of work and hungry for beautiful clothes and amusement. Johnny Mack Brown plays the poor man in love with Miss Bellamy, and Walter McGrail, the rich one, also in love, but not sufficiently so to want to marry her.

The plot of "The Mysterious Lady," coming to the Teatro del Lago next Thursday and Friday, is laid in the rival countries, Russia and Austria, in the days preceding the World War. Greta Garbo, as a beautiful Russian spy who falls in love with an Austrian officer whom she has disgraced, plays with feeling and distinction. In her support, Conrad Nagel gives a splendidly romantic touch to his difficult part.
