DOG IS STAR AGAIN

Rin-Tin-Tin, Famous Dog of the Screen, Does His Stuff in Community House Picture

Community House pictures for next week are "Jaws of Steel," with Rin-Tin-Tin, and "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," with Richard Barthelmess and Molly O'Day.

"Jaws of Steel" will be shown on Tuesday, September 25. This time Rin-Tin-Tin, the dog actor, is in a desert picture. Lost when a pup, and grown from a waif of the desert to a fierce bristling wolf-dog, he finds again, the friends of his childhood, just after they have struck gold, and are in danger from some bad men. With Rin-Tin-Tin are Jason Robards, Helen Ferguson, Baby Mary Louise Miller, Robert Perry, Jack Curtis, and George Conners.

"The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" is the picture attraction for Friday, September 28. It deals with the days of the Civil War and the adventures which befall a fourteen-year-old mountain boy, homeless and a wanderer, with no other companion than his faithful dog. They travel into the distant mountain regions, far from civilization; into the aristocratic homes of the Blue Grass country and into the Union camps where the lad meets General U. S. Grant. Later, when the war is over and the young man returns to claim his sweetheart, follow a series of dramatic incidents that hold interest to the final scene. Richard Barthelmess plays the homeless boy and Molly O'Day his sweetheart.

Norshore to Show

"Oh Kay," Colleen Moore Comic Film

Colleen Moore, recently so successful in "Happiness Ahead" and "Lilac Time," will be seen at the Norshore theater beginning this Saturday, September 22, in "Oh Kay" wherein Miss Moore plays one of the comedy roles for which she was so well known prior to taking up the more serious pictures.

"Oh Kay" is the screenization of the musical comedy success, and it is pleasant if not unusual entertainment. The story of Lady Kay Rutfield of England, who runs away from a despised fiance, sets sail for America on a rum runner and, over here, finds herself in ridiculous and impossible situations—that merge duly into a blissful and permanent one, holds the interest.

The film is full of action. The alert Miss Moore is assisted by an efficient cast, principals being Ford Sterling, Alan Hale and Lawrence Gray.

On the stage Al Kvale, recently returned from his successes at the Oriental theater in the loop, will direct his Jazz Collegians in "A Jazz Paradise." This is the gorgeous stage creation which was used for the opening of the new Paradise theater on the west side during the last week.

The Norshore has announced that beginning this week its pictures and stage shows will be changed every Saturday instead of Sunday.

Graeme Players to Give "The Show Off" Friday

The Graeme Players Stock company, which played at the Alycon theater in Highland Park for fourteen successive weeks last spring, reopened at that theater this Friday, September 21. The play presented was Taylor Holmes' famous comedy drama, "Not So Fast," with Joe Driscoll, featured player of the stock company, assuming the roll that Taylor Holmes made famous.

Next Friday, September 28, the Graeme Players will present at the Alycon the well known comedy drama, "The Show Off," with Mr. Driscoll again in the leading role. The feature picture for the evening will be Emil Jannings in "The Way of All Flesh."

"The Lion and the Mouse" Will Be Shown at Varsity

"The Lion and the Mouse," talking picture, will be presented at the Varsity theater Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of next week. It has been said of this picture that "excepting 'The Jazz Singer,' in which the sound interpolations were mostly musical, 'The Lion and the Mouse' is the best 'talkie' that has appeared."

The cast includes Lionel Barrymore as John Ryder, May McAvoy as Shirley Rossmore, Alice B. Francis as Judge Rossmore, William Collier, Jr., as Jefferson Ryder, and others.

Florence Vidor will return to the screen in "Divorce Bound."
