MRS. BUENGER TO ENTERTAIN

Mrs. Theodore A. Buenger will entertain the teachers of Horace Mann school at her home, 268 Ridge avenue, next Friday afternoon at 4:30. The purpose of the meeting will be to talk over the parent-teacher work for the year.

FLOWERS FOR MILADY

When you pass our flower shop display of choice blossoms the chances are one hundred to one that you think of wife or sweetheart. But what good is it to her if you think but fail to act? Next time you pass come in and select a pretty bunch of flowers for her. Take them yourself or we will send them. You are sure, this way, to make her happy.

Classes for Foreign Born Will Start Next Monday

The classes in English, which will be organized at Community House Monday evening, October 8, are open to any one who wishes to learn to speak or write English, particularly those who are foreign born.

Registration will be made on the foregoing date and fees will be received, in order that the regular class work may be taken up the following week.

Instructors will be present to register those desiring to enter, and to arrange classes. Teachers in charge of the work will be Miss Livia Youngquist, Miss Millicent Anderson, and Miss Margaret Wilson, all of the Winnetka Public schools. Seymour Olmstead will assist on Tuesday evenings, giving information relative to the laws and ideals of the country.

Those who contemplate entering these classes are urged to be present at the October 8 meeting. Further information relative to the work, fees, etc., may be obtained by telephoning Community House, Winnetka 538.

Gimbastian and Others Will Face Federal Jury

Palmer Gimbastian of Northfield, his wife, Mrs. Italia Gimbastian, and George Corrado Guastaphalia of Hubbard Woods, were bound over to the Federal grand jury, Tuesday, by United States Commissioner Edwin K. Walker. Similar charges against Mrs. George C. Guastaphalia were dismissed.

These are among the cases growing out of the recent arrests in Winnetka and vicinity on charges of violation of the prohibition law.

The hearings in connection with similar charges against Frank Woolley and F. T. Richardson, are set for today.

Seminars, Classes Now Being Held for Winnetka Teachers

Classes in educational sociology, psychology, art, and dramatics for teachers of the Winnetka Public schools are now being conducted at the Skokie school and at the Community House. Four meetings of each class are held per month from 7 to 9 o'clock on designated evenings. Twice each month seminars are conducted under the direction of Superintendent Carleton Washburne, and to these teachers original research work of the teachers is brought.

The teacher classes are accredited by the Colorado State Teachers' college, and the credits of that institution are transferable. The regular classes, which began this week, will run for twenty-four weeks, while the seminars will be continued throughout the entire school year.

The various classes are under the direction of the following persons: educational sociology, S. R. Logan; psychology, Miss Frances Dummer; art, Miss Alta Gahan, and dramatic art, Mrs. Frances Murray.

AID WOMEN'S COUNCIL

The Winnetka circles for the past years have been sending delegates each month to the Chicago Business Woman's council to wait on the lunch tables where the girls get a hot lunch for twenty-five cents. Those who assisted this month were Mrs. C. S. Ostom, 466 Cedar street; Mrs. William Hadley, 913 Oak street; Mrs. Ralph Morphet, 964 Tower road; Mrs. Albert Martin, 997 Vine street.

Edgar Stanton, 30 Locust road, Indian Hill, left Sunday, September 23, for Yale university, where he enters his freshman year.
