Sigma Chi's, Princeton Club to Have Parties

Events in the future at Sunset Ridge Country club include the annual Sigma Chi Field day which any north shore men attend. It will be held on October 5 this year and will include all day golf with luncheon and a dinner dance in the evening. The Princeton club of Chicago will also hold its Field day at Sunset Ridge this year on October 17. Yesterday the Hoagland Allum Investment Company held their annual "day" under the sponsorship of

H. R. Walton of Winnetka and Robert Phalen of Sunset Ridge.

Teachers Plan Picnic in Forest Preserve

The teachers of Horace Mann school are planning a picnic at one of the nearby forest preserves next Monday after school. They expect to take lunch with them. Before going to the forest preserve the new teachers will be driven around Winnetka and vicinity that they may see some of the north shore country.

The Habit of Success

Every young man and woman should acquire the "Habit of Success," and the way to acquire it is to stick to whatever you attempt to do, and continue long enough to "put it across."

Report Another Fox in Skokie; Will Hold Hunt This Week-End

The fact that wild foxes still inhabit the Skokie and wooded areas is not generally known. John Hartnett, huntsman of the Longmeadow hunt of Winnetka (formerly Indian hunt) advises us that a farmer came to the hunt kennels at Hubbard and Avoca roads a few days ago and complained that foxes were stealing his chickens and geese. He said he shot at one three times but missed. The farmer asked that the club's fox hounds be used in ridding his farm of the nuisance. Mr. Hartnett advised the farmer not to shoot the foxes but to report their presence to C. Colton Daughaday, master, who would hunt them out with the Longmeadow pack.

Last season the trail of live fox was picked up several times by the hounds, and chases resulted. One live fox was killed near Carroll D. Murphy's home on Winnetka road. The Longmeadow pack will hunt the most recently reported fox in his Skokie valley lair this weekend.

Mr. Hartnett says the prospects for several fox hunts this season are very good and that riders are showing keen interest in drag and fox hunting in Winnetka where the sport has been established for many years. He states that the following riders, besides the hunt servants and the master, C. Colton Daughaday, have been out with the Longmeadow hounds this year: Col. A. E. Peirce, Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. McPherson, Arthur M. Cox, Ernest H. Hicks, H. C. Alley, Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. Butler, William G. Woolfolk, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest S. Ballard, Ogden West, and Henry Gardner.

Mrs. Ella Koontz Johnson, who has taught piano for six years in Winnetka, is taking up the work again after her summer vacation.
