

WILL MISS BILL AND AL

Winnetka Diamond Stars to Play Professional Ball Next Year, Fans Are Saying

Bill Carey, catcher and captain of the Winnetka baseball team this season and Third Baseman "Al" Izard, who, by the way, is captain of the Northwestern university nine, were seen in action for the last time this season on the local diamond Sunday. Both boys will play professional baseball when they finish at the university next year.

Bill Carey did not play up to standard the past summer, due to a sore arm sustained early in the spring when the Northwestern university team was still practicing in Patten gymnasium. He attempted to do too much throwing before sufficiently warming up, and, as a result, threw several muscles out of line.

Filling Captain Carey's shoes is a problem that Manager Abe Fell will be facing before long.

They'll Miss "Al," Too
Izard, flashy little third baseman, played consistent ball all season, filling that station in great style. Many times he thrilled the local fans with brilliant stops and spectacular plays.

Miss Ethel Meyers, John Irving Janette Wed at St. Francis

Miss Ethel G. Meyers, daughter of Mrs. E. G. Meyers of Davenport, Iowa, and John Irving Janette, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Janette of 315 Abbottsford road, Kenilworth, were married at 9:30 o'clock last Saturday morning in St. Francis Xavier church.

The Rev. Fr. Bernard Brady read the service and James T. Carney, soloist of the Chicago Symphony orchestra, sang the High Mass. The bride's dress was made of bridal satin trimmed in white Chantilly lace. Her long veil was caught in the back with gardenias. The bouquet was of roses and valley lilies.

The maid of honor, Miss Gertrude Ruefer of Davenport, and the bridesmaid, Miss Mary Loretta Janette, sister of the bridegroom, were dressed in yellow and wore light green hats and green slippers. The church was decorated in yellow chrysanthemums.

Record S. Ferris of Chicago was best man and W. Scott Twining of LaGrange was usher. A wedding breakfast at the Orrington hotel followed the services. After a honeymoon in Canada Mr. and Mrs. Janette will be at home in Rogers Park.

TO VISIT IN LAKE FOREST

Mrs. James W. Prindiville, formerly of Winnetka, after a stay with her family on Cape Cod and Long Island, before returning to her home in Cleveland, will visit her daughter, Mrs. Robert Hotz, in Lake Forest.

Her daughter, Mary Ellen, left this week for Westover school in Connecticut.

Robert and June Heyda, 1139 Asbury avenue, have left for Madison where they will both attend the University of Wisconsin.

Greeley School P. T. A. to Entertain Teachers

The Greeley school branch of the Winnetka Parent-Teacher association has planned two social events for teachers of that school this week-end. A tea given by Mrs. Myron Harshaw at her home, 535 Willow road, for all members of the Greeley faculty was planned for yesterday afternoon after school. Next Monday Mrs. Justus Chancellor, Jr., 549 Oak street, will take the Greeley faculty and supervisors on a yacht party.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kendricks and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Goodman, Hubbard Woods, are again at home after a two weeks' sojourn at Eaton's ranch at Sheridan, Wyo.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest MacGibbon, formerly of Winnetka, have gone into town and taken an apartment for the winter at 180 East Delaware place.
