

DRIVE TO LAKE PLACID

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Anderson, 328 Linden avenue, and Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Boswell left yesterday morning to motor to Lake Placid for a few days. Leaving there they will stop at New York and Washington and then go on through the New England states. They will be gone about three weeks and during this time Mrs. Anderson's sister, Miss Florence Pond of Minneapolis, will be in their home.

Miss Lutie and Miss Beulah Combs of Petersburg, Ill. have been visiting their cousin, Mrs. Delbert Poff of 739 Walden road.

Ernest Ballards Now at Home in Winnetka

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest S. Ballard of 811 Auburn avenue and their children arrived in Winnetka last Tuesday after spending the last three months abroad. Mrs. Ballard and the children went over first and spent three weeks in Paris before going to Annecy Lake in Switzerland where they met Mr. Ballard. Later the children spent some time on the Normandy coast while Mr. and Mrs. Ballard enjoyed some riding at Fountainsbleu. They come home on the S. S. DeGrasse, arriving in New York on September 24.

Passenger Injured in Hibbard Motor Collision

A car owned by the National Tea company and driven by J. F. Walsh, of 3233 Eastwood avenue, Chicago, crashed into a car driven by Fred Dameske, of 879 Ash street, Winnetka, Sunday morning at 8 o'clock, resulting in painful injuries to Joe Davis, age 21, residing on Goethe street, Chicago, a passenger in the car driven by Walsh.

The accident occurred on Hibbard road at the entrance of the Skokie Playfield golf course. Walsh was driving north, at a high rate of speed, according to Officer Frank Rayburn, when he struck the car driven by Dameske as the latter turned into the golf grounds.

Davis suffered two scalp wounds and was cut on the nose, both knees and right hand. His injuries were dressed by Dr. Albert H. Wales, of 522 Center street.

Mrs. J. B. Guthrie, 730 Walden road, has had her sister-in-law, Mrs. Francis J. Lemoine of Pittsburgh, visiting her this past week. Mrs. Lemoine was passing through on her way from Eaton Ranch, Wyo., to her home.

Brilliant Woman Pianist on Staff of Music School

The teaching staff of the Winnetka branch of the Columbia School of Music has been augmented by the addition of Helen B. Lawrence, one of Chicago's prominent and successful pianists, and Miss Dorothy Tatman, violinist. Miss Tatman is an artist pupil of Ruth Ray, the well known violinist. Miss Lawrence is well and favorably known in Chicago not only as a teacher but as a soloist of excellent attainments. She recently appeared in Orchestra Hall as soloist with the Columbia School Symphony Orchestra, directed by Ludwig Becker.

Many of the younger pianists of the city are members of her class and only last season her pupil, Corinne Byington, appeared as soloist with the orchestra in the Chicago auditorium. Miss Lawrence is a past president of Mu Iota Chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, a national honorary musical sorority and a former vice-president of the Society of American Musicians. She will be in the Winnetka studio Wednesday of each week.

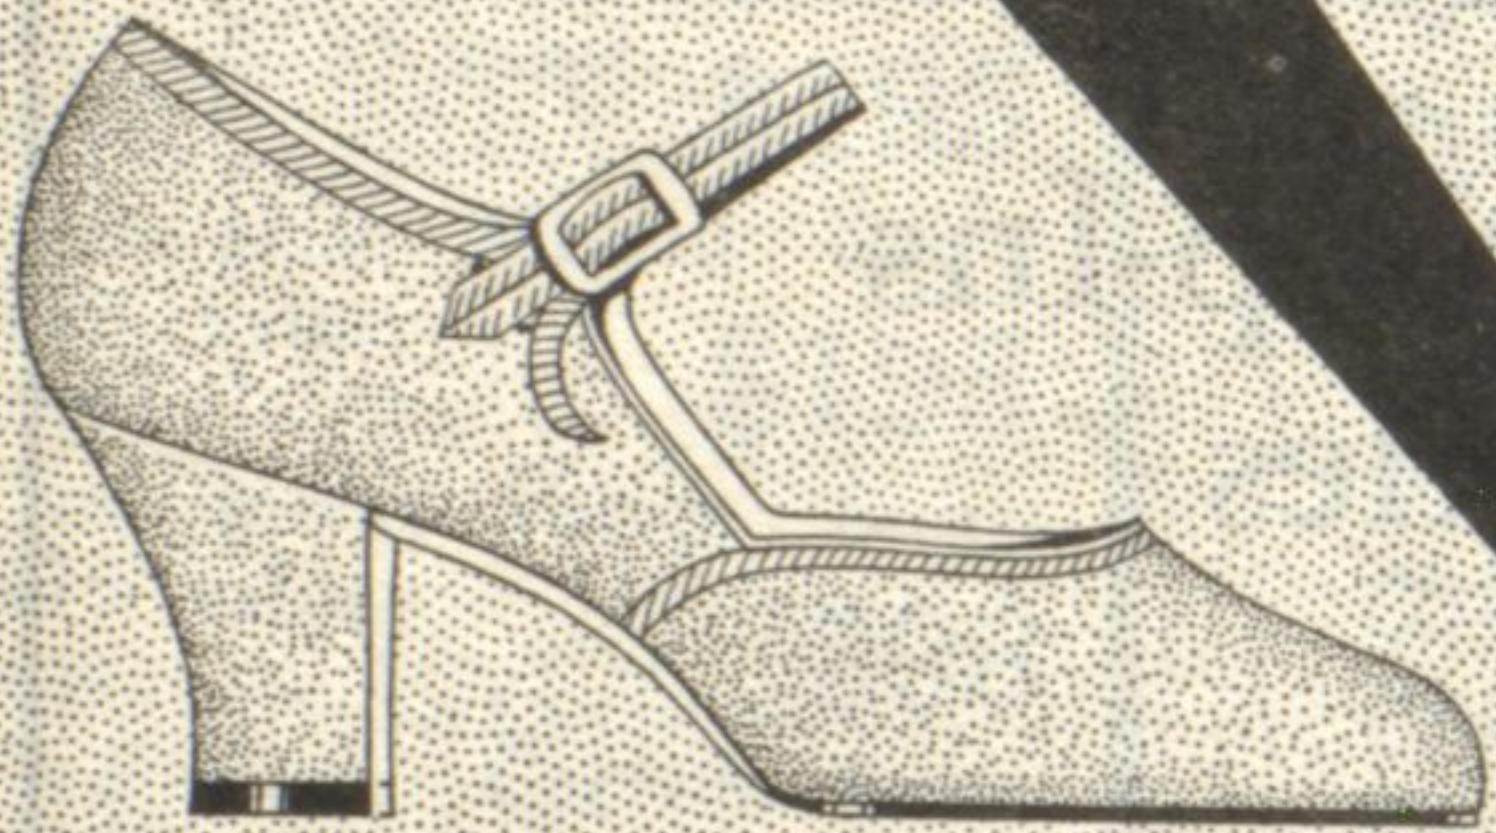

Kathleen Air, principal of the Winnetka Branch for many years, will remain, as will all of the former teachers including, Valona Brewer, violinist, and the following pianists: Laura Coupland, Katherine Hedglin, Phyllis Kellogg Whit, Mary Esther Winslow.

Walter Spry, the distinguished pianist and pedagogue, will continue his Winnetka teaching Wednesday and Saturday of each week and Grace Parmele, a young soprano recently added to the faculty, will also teach in the Winnetka branch.

Herbert Woodward, son of the Arthur H. Woodwards, 685 Ardsley road, left Wednesday to attend Choate Preparatory school at Wallingford, Conn.

Mrs. A. M. Hanson of South Shore has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. I. J. Smit, 815 Foxdale avenue, recently.
