

INVITE CHILDREN TO FREE TRAVEL MOVIES

Field Museum of Natural History
Sponsors Series for North
Shore School Pupils

Programs of the autumn series of free moving pictures for children of Chicago and its suburbs, to be given at Field Museum of Natural History, were announced this week by Stephen C. Simms, director of the museum. The first of these entertainments will be given Saturday, October 6. Eight others will be given on succeeding Saturdays. The programs are presented under the auspices of the James Nelson and Anna Louise Raymond Fund of the museum.

The programs include films of adventure in far parts of the world, wild animals in their native haunts, travel pictures, and many other subjects of special interest to children. The pictures will be shown in the James Simpson theatre of the museum, and will be run continuously from 10 a. m. until noon each Saturday.

Announces Series

For the first of the series the films scheduled are "The Eskimo," "The Sky," "On Earth," "Glimpses of Greenland," and "Mysteries of Snow." Following are the programs for succeeding Saturdays: October 13, "Brazil," "How Living Things Find a Home," "Butterflies and Moths," "Jungle Round-up," and "Children of the Sun"; October 20, "The Sahara," "Ants," "Bees and Spiders," "The Lion Hunt," and "Perfume and Nicotine"; October 27, "Switzerland," "Seaside Friends and Their Country Cousins," "A Day at the River," "Where Snow Time Is Joy Time," and "Mountain Climbing in Glacier National Park"; November 3, "China," "Down at Our Pond," "In Birdland," "Monarchs of the Plains," and "Our Four-footed Pals"; November 10, "Argentina," "Pirates of the Sky," "Pets," and "The Story of Leather"; November 17, "Peoples of the Mediterranean," "Furry Creatures," "Friends to Man," "Secrets of the Sea," and "The Parasol Ant"; November 24, "From England to South America," "Preparing for a Garden," "Palace of Honey," and "Golden Fleece"; and December 1, "The Rhine Valley," "Growing Things," "Fruit and Flowers," "Bird Sanctuary," and "Monarch of the Glen."

Souvenir Leaflets

Children attending the entertainments will receive small printed leaflets, "Museum Stories for Children," dealing with the subjects of the films, as souvenirs of their visit to the museum. The children will also have an opportunity after the moving pictures to view exhibits in the museum which connect up with the subjects of many of the films. Children may come alone, accompanied by their parents, or in groups from schools, either accompanied or unaccompanied by teachers.

E. E. Stults Negotiates Big Chicago Transaction

Herman P. Andersen has just purchased the 15 apartment building on a lot 40x152½ feet located at 4424-26 N. Lincoln street, Chicago, from William F. Von Sennett, subject to encumbrances aggregating $67,500. He gave as part payment the summer home on the Fox River at Alongonquin, Ill. Elmer E. Stults of the E. E. Stults Realty company represented all parties to the transaction and will manage the building.

Cyrus Calloway of Wilmette, a freshman at Wabash college, recently has been pledged to Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

Beauty, Bonds, to Intrigue Business Women's Club

The executive committee of the Business and Professional Women's club of Wilmette held its first meeting of the season last Saturday. An interesting and varied program of subjects from "Beauty" to "Bonds" has been planned for the coming year, according to the program chairman, Miss Winifred Rowan.

All business or professional women in Wilmette are eligible to membership. Applications for membership may be submitted to Miss Kae Evans at the First National Bank.

The first general meeting of the club will be held October 8. A dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock in the First Congregational church.

Mrs. John Wilds, 244 Oxford road, Kenilworth, entertained her Sunday school class at tea Sunday evening.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

On Tuesday, September 25, Ruth Joyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Joyce of 531 Essex road, Kenilworth, entertained several of her friends from 4:30 o'clock until 9, the occasion being her eleventh birthday. Mrs. Joyce, who has been confined to her home for the past two weeks, is recovering from a fractured ankle.
