

Westmoor Trail in Winnetka

HERE is the exceptional location for building a beautiful home - offering.

All of the advantages of delightful country life, where the air is clean and clear, far away from noise and dust and dirt and smoke, on a private drive now rapidly nearing completion with all improvements underground, where they should be—a place where traffic can't go roaring by to endanger your children—

a location close to schools, surrounded by beautiful homes

— having restrictions which forever insure growing values and plots laid out so that your nearest neighbor's house cannot be nearer than sixty feet from your own.

HERE is one of the few remaining beauty spots of the North Shore, in our own Village of Winnetka, you may still be able to get a location exactly suited to your wants, at a price less than anything comparable.

All of the lots purchased to date have been by our own Winnetka residents, long acquainted with Winnetka locations and Winnetka values.

Call me up for an appointment to show you its many advantages.

Editor, WINNETKA TALK:

The days of registration for the coming election are not the same in Chicago as they are in that portion of Cook county lying outside the city. Registration days for the Cook county suburbs will be Saturday, October 6 and Tuesday, October 16.

The Registration boards consist of the regular appointed judges of election in each precinct, and the places of registration will be the regular polling places. The hours of registration will be 7 A. M. to 4 P. M.

The Chicago newspapers always solemnly announce that the times of registration will be thus and so, never stating that these times vary, as between city and suburbs. By publishing this information you will help New Trier voters to register on the proper day.

Mrs. Margaret Connell Dies at Daughter's Home

Mrs. Margaret Connell, wife of the late D. J. Connell, and mother of Mrs. Leo J. Doyle, of 680 Locust street, Winnetka, died Thursday morning September 20, at her daughter's home. Mrs. Connell, who was 65 years old, had been ailing for some time and had been confined to her room for several months.

For the last fifteen years Mrs. Connell had lived at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Leo J. Doyle. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle moved to Winnetka from Rogers Park five years ago.

Mrs. Connell is survived by her daughter, by one sister, Mrs. H. M. Hansen, of Spokane, Wash., who was in Winnetka for the funeral, and two brothers, John Dalton, of Chicago, and Thomas Dalton, of Glen Ellyn, Ill.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning from the daughter's residence, 680 Locust street, Winnetka, to Sacred Heart Church, Hubbard Woods, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated at 9:30. Interment was made at All Saints cemetery.

Big Universities Promise to Assist in Great Fair Plan

David Kinley, president of the University of Illinois, and Frederic C. Woodward, acting president of the University of Chicago, have pledged the great institutions of learning of which they are the heads, to unqualified support of the Chicago Centennial celebration in 1933.

Both regard Chicago's coming World's Fair as an educational enterprise of extraordinary possibilities. In letters written to Rufus C. Dawes, president of the Centennial committee, they cordially endorse the program as one that will advance the progress of civilization.

Stephen C. Simms, director of the Field Museum of Natural History, announces that unusual efforts are being made to prepare for the Celebration, as a part of the Centennial. Thus three of the greatest educational institutions in the Mid-West have declared themselves for the World's Fair.

Cablegrams from Paris, Munich and Moscow, urgently requesting more time, have caused the postponement of the closing date for the World's Fair Poster Contest from September 15 to October 12.

Chauncey McCormick, chairman of the Art Committee, announces that nearly 100 posters have been received. Since the cablegrams came from art committees, it is expected that several able artistic efforts will come from each point.

Secretary of Labor James J. Davis has commended to the Centennial trustees a series of nine great international conferences for the consideration of labor, industrial and economic problems.

Splendid expressions of approval from the outside world prove the wisdom of the Enrollment campaign. Chicagoans are telling the world what will be done here, and every five dollar contribution to the Enrollment Fund is a further guaranty of the greatest enterprise ever attempted.

Voters League and Guild Change Luncheon Hours

Since it was found necessary to put the opening meeting of the Winnetka League of Women Voters on the same day that the first meeting of the Women's guild of Christ church is to be held, the two organizations are co-operating so that a member of the Women's guild who wishes to attend that meeting may also go to the meeting of the League of Women Voters in time to hear the principal address of the day. The luncheon of the guild has been set one half hour earlier, coming at 12 o'clock, and the League of Women Voters has set the time of its luncheon at 1.
