Community House to Show "Fleetwing" Next Tuesday

"Fleetwing," a romantic story of Araby, featuring Barry Norton, will be the Community House picture for next Tuesday, October 30. The story of this film has much to do with the capture of a famous wild horse, Fleetwing. The hero captures the horse and a beautiful girl from a rival tribe. He falls in love with the girl and is forced to fight his own tribesmen to keep her. The story is entertaining and there are some beautiful photographic shots of the sand hills.

Norma Shearer, star of "The Student Prince," and other notable productions, will be seen at the Community House Friday of next week in "The Actress," which has been adjudged by critics one of the best pictures released in recent months. It is a charmingly staged production, a screenization of Pinero's "Trelawney of the Wells," which breathes the atmosphere of the 80's. Norma Shearer is an adorable Trelawney. Owen Moore, Gwen Lee, and Roy D'Arcy are among those in the supporting cast. All of the roles are sympathetically portrayed.

"Synthetic Sin" and "The Richest Girl in the World" will be the next starring pictures of Colleen Moore, who recently has won the hearts of many movie-goers in "Lilac Time" and "Happiness Ahead."
