Conrad Nagel Stars in Underworld Film at Varsity Theater

Dolores Costello and Conrad Nagel, co-stars of "Glorious Betsy" and other equally successful pictures, are now on the screen at the Varsity theater in "Tenderloin," another underworld offering. This particular story deals with a band of crooks who plan a bank robbery, are doubled crossed by another crook, and throw the blame on an innocent girl, thereby causing much anguish. Dolores Costello does fairly good dramatic work in the picture.

Gus Arnheim and his orchestra and Swor on the vitaphone, and the personal appearance of Edyth Diedrich, authority on health and beauty, are special features of the present Varsity program.

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of next week "State Street Sadie," which also ranks among the underworld group, is to be shown at the Varsity. The plot features Conrad Nagel as the bright boy who plays crook to revenge the death of his brother. Myrna Loy is the girl friend who's really as good as gold but poses as tough little State Street Sadie from Chicago to abet in the gangster's capture. Of course, they win out and win each other. Nagel is excellent. William Russell as chief bad man of the picture is the last word in sinister urbanity and dynamic repression.

Vilma Banky will be a waitress in her new picture, "Child's—Fifth Avenue."

NORTHWESTERN WEEK

Norshore to Have Special Show for Its University Patrons; Richard Barthelmess on Screen

Next week will be Northwestern week at the Norshore and the management of that theater is arranging a special show for its university patrons from Evanston. Al Kvale, the campus clown, will preside over the Jazz Collegians in a gala stage production entitled "Hello Northwestern."

The Ritz brothers, called the world's funniest collegians, will be there to entertain the college folk. As a special feature for the week the Norshore management has engaged the Wisner sisters, Northwestern coed songsters. Northwestern week begins this Saturday, September 29, to end the following Friday night, which is the regular college night at the Norshore.

The screen offering for the week is "Out of the Ruins," with Richard Barthelmess in the leading role. Barthelmess again plays in a story of the war, but one entirely different from "The Patent Leather Kid." He is a French soldier this time, a dashing lieutenant of the "Blue Devils." Before the story is through he has deserted, but it is love, not cowardice, which prompts his act.

Opposite the star is Marion Nixon as a young French girl, Yvonne—and a lovely heroine too. This is one of her good performances and it is in a difficult role that demands much emotional playing.

"Enter Madame" Will Be Given by Graeme Players

The Graeme Players, the stock company organization performing at the Alcyon theater in Highland Park, are once more delighting Friday night audiences at that theater. "The Show Off," with Joe Driscoll in the leading role, was the play scheduled for Friday evening of this week.

Next Friday, October 5, Miss Sigrid Graeme, director of the Graeme Players, will make her first stage appearance in Highland Park, when she assumes the leading role in the comedy drama, "Enter Madame," with Joe Driscoll playing opposite her. It is announced that this probably will be the only chance for theater-goers to see Miss Graeme perform in Highland Park. There will be no increase in admission prices. The feature picture for the evening will be Harry Langdon in his comedy, "Heart Trouble."
