

"CAMPAIGN POLITICS," MEETING THEME HERE

Voters' League Calls to "Evening of Campaign Politics" Wednesday

The Winnetka League of Women Voters is inviting residents of Winnetka and other north shore communities to an "Evening of Campaign Politics" to be held Wednesday evening, October 10, in Rudolph Matz hall, Community House, at 8, o'clock.

Issues and views of candidates of the two major political parties will be presented at this meeting, the league having secured as speakers Mrs. James W. Morrison, for the Republican party, and Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank for the Democratic party. No better speakers are to be found than these two outstanding leaders in political and charity activity, the league officers point out.

Mrs. Morrison, a former president of the Illinois League of Women Voters, has just returned from Europe where, in Paris she witnessed the signing of the Multilateral treaty for the renunciation of war as a national policy. Among the women invited to attend there was only one representative of a national woman's organization in this country, Mrs. Morrison representing the National League of Women Voters. She is at the head of the Independent Women for Hoover organization in Illinois.

Mrs. Fairbank has been an active worker in the Democratic party having only recently retired from the position of Democratic National Committee-woman of Illinois. She is a well known author and her charitable interests and civic activities are numerous.

The speakers will be introduced by Miss Bertha Bidwell, president of the Illinois League of Women Voters. Mrs. A. M. Ferry will preside at the meeting.
