

Triangle Members Predict Season of Sports Supremacy

The first meeting of the season was held by the Triangle club at Community House Monday evening, at which time enough enthusiasm was injected into the plans for the winter sports to carry the club far into the lead, for local honors in various athletic contests which it is proposed to enter.

Basket ball, volley ball, bowling and indoor base ball are to be the games featured by the Triangle members. Their membership embraces not only many star players in these several games, but also numerous near stars, from the ranks of which it is proposed to organize competing teams within the Triangle club, for membership competition as well as with a view of later challenging other local teams whenever the later shall have progressed to a point sufficient to make it interesting for the Triangle Trimmers.

Joe Lucchesi is president of the Triangle organization Austin Cazel is secretary and Thomas Edwards is treasurer. They meet every Monday evening.

George Mangel, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mangel of 490 Sunset road, who is attending the University of Illinois, has been pledged to Sigma Nu fraternity.

Claudia Muzio to Open Artist-Recital Series

Claudia Muzio, world renowned dramatic soprano, will open the fifth season of the Winnetka Music club Artist-Recital series in the auditorium of New Trier High school Monday evening, October 29. Claudia Muzio was born in Italy, where she studied and made her debut at Milan. She was later engaged by the Metropolitan Opera company, and since then has become one of the leading sopranos in the Chicago Civic Opera company.

Other artists appearing on the program this year are: Vladimir Horowitz, Russian pianist; Albert Spalding, American violinist; Andres Segovia, Spanish guitarist; and John Charles Thomas, baritone.

Subscribers to the Artist-Recital series have been reminded again to communicate with Mrs. Bessie Grant, secretary of the Winnetka Music club, if they have not yet received their season tickets.
