Winnetka Teachers Are Guests of College Folk

Teachers of the primary grades in the Winnetka Public schools, together with Supt. Carleton Washburne and the principals of the schools, were guests of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college at 6 o'clock dinner in Evanston Thursday evening. The dinner was an appreciation of the co-operation of the Winnetka schools in permitting students at the kindergarten college to do observation work and practice teaching in the primary grades here. Discussion of the problems of the student teacher and of the plans of the supervision department of the kindergarten college for the improvement of student teaching was on the program.
