Christian Science Churches

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, October 14.

The Golden Text was from Jeremiah 17: 14, "Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise."

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Art thou not from everlasting, O Lord my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. . . . Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity" (Habakkuk 1: 12, 13).

The lesson-sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Sickness, sin, and death are not concomitants of Life or Truth. No law supports them.

Children's Home and Aid Board Sets Day for Ball

The North Shore Advisory board of the Illinois Children's Home and Aid society is sponsoring its annual charity ball. The event, this year, will take place on Tuesday, December 18, at the Evanston Country club. Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Charles H. Bosworth of Evanston is again general chairman of the ball committee, and Mrs. Charles Gates Dawes of Evanston is treasurer. Mrs. Robert W. Campbell of Evanston is chairman of patronesses, Mrs. Wheaton Augur of Winnetka, of boxes, and Mrs. Frank Warner Kingsley of Evanston, of publicity.

Mrs. J. M. Coulter, 1065 Chatfield road, has had as her guests recently, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brigham, and Miss May Virden of Princeton, Ill.

They have no relation to God where-with to establish their power" (p. 196).

Cradle Maisonette Changing Its Abode

The Cradle Maisonette, the tea room operated for benefit of the Cradle, a receiving home for babies, will remove to quarters on the mezzanine floor of the new Carlson building on Church street, Evanston on November 15.

Directors make announcement that the new habitation of the Maisonette will be attractively outfitted and provide as charming a rendezvous for luncheons and tea as the house which will be vacated immediately east of the new building.

The Cradle directors recently sponsored so successful a rummage sale that it is planned to make spring and fall sales an institution among its activities. The generous response of friends permitted a collection of goods that netted nearly $1,400, it is announced.

The date of the Cradle ball, originally planned for election night, has been changed to November 13. It will be held at the Opera club. Mrs. Eugene Stevens of Evanston is general chairman of its arrangements, Mrs. Averill Tilden is in charge of the ticket sale, Mrs. Henry M. Dawes of checks, Mrs. Louis Norcott of reservations, Mrs. Charles H. Bosworth of features and Mrs. L. Octigan White of publicity.

TRADING POST MOVES

The Indian Trading Post, which has been housed at 58 East Delaware place, Chicago, has removed to larger and more central quarters in Italian court, 619 North Michigan avenue, 153 East Ontario street, Chicago. The post is one in which a number of prominent Chicago and north shore clubwomen are interested.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Avery, 1427 Tower road, have had as their guests for the past week, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Martin of Cleveland.
