

Art League Will Meet
with Lionel Robertson

The North Shore Art league will have its regular monthly meeting at the home of the president of the organization, Lionel Robertson of Highland Park, at 8 o'clock next Thursday evening, October 25. The guest of honor, who will also be the speaker for the evening, will be Alphonso Iannelli, the distinguished decorator, etcher, and designer.

The following directions have been given to the members who are planning to attend the meeting: "Get off the North Shore Electric at Ravinia station and walk one block east on Roger Williams avenue, one block north on Dean avenue, then one half block west on Bronson avenue. Mr. Robertson's home is just over the raving bridge on the south side of the street." It is also planned to have someone at the station that evening to give these directions again.

Henry T. Chace, Sr.
Dies at Providence, R. I.

Henry T. Chace, Sr., of Providence, R. I., father of Paul G. Chace, 115 Meadow lane, Winnetka, died on Monday of this week at the home of a daughter in Providence. Mr. Chace was 94 years old. Besides the son in Winnetka, Mr. Chace is survived by another son, Assistant State's Attorney Henry T. Chace, Jr., of Chicago, and the daughter, Frances L. Chace, of Providence. Mr. Chace had been visiting his daughter for several weeks. Funeral services were to be held yesterday afternoon in the Church of the Redeemer, 56th street and Blackstone avenue, Chicago. Burial will be in Oakwoods cemetery.

Mrs. Thomas J. Bowden
Dies Suddenly Monday

Mrs. Thomas J. Bowden, formerly Miss Jean Glenn of Winnetka, died unexpectedly Monday night at the Alice Home hospital in Lake Forest. Mrs. Bowden, who was 22 years old at the time of her death, was a graduate of New Trier High school. She is survived by her husband and small daughter, her mother, Mrs. Robert James, a sister, Eilene, and a brother, Thomas. The funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon in Scott's funeral home, 1109 Central avenue, Wilmette, and burial was at Memorial Park.

MRS. A. E. McCLENDON DIES
Mrs. Anna E. McClendon died Wednesday afternoon, October 17, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John C. Marshall, 112 Green Bay road, Hubbard Woods. Funeral services were held Friday morning at the home. Burial will take place today at West Point, Ga.

Heads of Day Nursery Boards Attend Luncheon

The day nursery section of the Chicago Council of Social Agencies, of which Miss Ruth Matz of 1005 Sheridan road is chairman, entertained the chairmen of the different nursery boards at luncheon at the Chicago Woman's club Thursday, in honor of Mrs. Herman Day Biggs, president of the National Day Nurseries, who gave a talk.

Among those present were Mrs. Theodore Coyne, chairman of the Nursery board of the Matheon club of the Chicago Commons, and Miss Carolyn Boehmer of Highland Park, a member of the same committee.

Place Larceny Charge Against Pair Held Here

True bills were returned Monday against Ray and Edith Schmidt, 518 Central avenue, Highland Park, who, on September 15, were arrested by Patrolman J. H. Luensman and subsequently held to the grand jury by Justice R. E. Sinsheimer on a charge of grand larceny. The pair is charged with the theft of clothing and household goods from the Charles R. Jacobs residence at 368 Elder lane.

STUDENTS ATTEND RECITAL
Fifty students from North Shore Country Day school attended the dramatic recital of E. H. Sothorn at the Varsity theater, Evanston, Wednesday afternoon.

2nd MORTGAGES
LOW RATES — 1 DAY SERVICE — NO RED TAPE

H. Manasse Sons Investment Co.
3944 LAWRENCE AVE., CHICAGO KEYSTONE 3900

Real Estate Loans	on improved North Shore property	State Bank and Trust Co. Evanston
--------------------------	--	---

EVANSTON

6 1/2% FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

All the desirable features of Evanston are constantly attracting more residents to the city. This insures an increasing demand for space in its fine buildings. The bonds we offer are all secured by profitable income properties where there is present need and assurance of future demand.

Bonds of several excellent issues are now available in $100—$500—$1,000 denominations, all yielding 6 1/2% interest.

JOHN F. HAHN
INCORPORATED
1617 Sherman Avenue
Greenleaf 2700 EVANSTON Rogers Park 5115

Offering

—several fine tracts of land in the estate and ranging in size from 5 to 800 acres each. Priced from $375 to $1200 per acre.

L. W. SCHNITZER
ACREAGE-COUNTRY HOMES-FARMS

Box 174, Glen View, Ill.
Phone Northbrook 116-J