

DRAPERIES

You Need Only Choose Them — We Will Design and Hang Them for You!

With the cold weather and the holiday season approaching, thoughts turn to the home and its inviting comfort. New draperies, stylishly and attractively arranged, are as essential to the appearance of the well-appointed home as are the furniture and the floor coverings. Hartman's complete Drapery Department is prepared to solve your problems of interior decoration. You select the materials and fabrics you desire with the aid of our style experts, who will gladly visit your home for an accurate estimate of your needs, also advising you as to the correct way of hanging the draperies. Then, if you wish, we will at a nominal cost cut, sew and hang the material for you, assuring you of utmost satisfaction both as to style and workmanship.
