Mary Crane Nursery School Activities Now in Full Swing

The year's activities of the Mary Crane Nursery school are in full swing. Monday afternoon work meetings were resumed on October 15 and will continue on Mondays each week at the home of Mrs. George W. Groves, 415 Davis street, Evanston, chairman of the group. Other members of the board are Mrs. L. L. Lane, secretary; Mrs. R. H. Schmidt, treasurer; Mrs. Clarence Clark of Wilmette, chairman of the work committee; Mrs. Harry J. Allen, social chairman; Mrs. Florence S. Capron, chairman of organization and publicity; Mrs. Alfred R. Bates, membership chairman; and Mrs. Harry Phillips, chairman-at-large.

The membership in the Auxiliary is growing steadily. The aim of the organization is to co-operate with the National Kindergarten and Elementary college in carrying on this nursery school work at Hull House. The college is responsible for this school in the congested Hull House district.

The Auxiliary is working at present for a White Elephant sale which will be held Tuesday, November 12, and Wednesday, November 13. The place will be announced later.

There will be a department of attractive articles made by the group. Two members have been specializing all summer in doll clothes. Young doll mothers will be able to outfit their entire family. This special department is very unique.

Kenilworth Now Boasts Largest Boy Scout Unit

The Kenilworth troop of Boy Scouts now numbers 60 and is the largest on the north shore. It has been divided into A. and B. units, with separate officers for each unit. Jack Howell is senior patrol leader and is assisted by Robert Burn and Claude Hamilton. Paul Gilbert is troop scribe, while Roger Barrett and Tom Sinding are assistant troop scribes. George Manlove is treasurer and George Woodland is quartermaster. Patrol leaders for the two units are: A company—Tom Sinding, George Manlove, and Harry Weiss; B company—Junior Dickinson, George Gillett, and Tom Smith. Regular patrol meetings and inter-patrol events have been planned.
