Field Museum Lectures Depict Jungle Customs

"Jungle Gods," a free lecture for the public, illustrated with motion pictures of the mysterious rites practised in the worship of the strange gods of Africa by primitive natives, will be given this Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the James Simpson theater of Field Museum of Natural History. Captain Carl von Hoffman, noted explorer, who penetrated the enchanted inner circle of the Chuwali tribe in Rhodesia to obtain his facts and take the motion pictures, is the lecturer. The films show the effects of voodoo superstition and witchcraft—the people terrorized by out evil spirits, quaint marriage ceremonies, and other details of native life medicine men, villages burned to drive which dramatically expose the native psychology. Captain von Hoffman is a Russian by birth, and has had an adventurous career as an army officer and an explorer for many years.

Dedicate New Home for Convalescent War Vets

The new log cabin home of the Chalet of Voiture 220, Society of the Forty and Eight, erected on Maple Hill in the Forest Preserve, was dedicated Sunday, October 21.

Elaborate ceremonies marked the opening of the veterans' new home. Charles Roth, Chef de Gare, presided, and President Anton J. Cermak of the Cook County board, made the speech of response.

TALKS ABOUT GARDENS

Mrs. David Cooke of Evanston, a member of the Wilmette Garden club, recently gave a stereopticon lecture before the Crystal Lake Garden club, her subject, "Rock Gardens." Pictures were taken from her own garden.

Stunning Waste Baskets, $1

A shiny black lacquer-like finish with a striking modernistic touch of color. A colorful accessory to any room. Oval in shape, special value, $1.

Self-Wringing Mop and 10-qt. Pail, $1

Merely turn the handle grip—the mop is wrung! No stooping—your hands don't touch the water. It is designed so it cannot splash over baseboards.

5-Egg Poacher $1.09

Poaches five eggs at once. Water bubbles up over the eggs in their separate compartments and cooks them to a delicious creaminess. Regularly priced, $1.50.

Hoover Vacuum Cleaner
Beats as it sweeps
as it cleans!
Come in and see it!

Aluminum Skillet and Cover, $1

Its green, enameled wood handle won't get hot—its flat bottom spreads the flame equally over the surface. The cover fits tightly so things simmer slowly. Just big enough for a family of two.

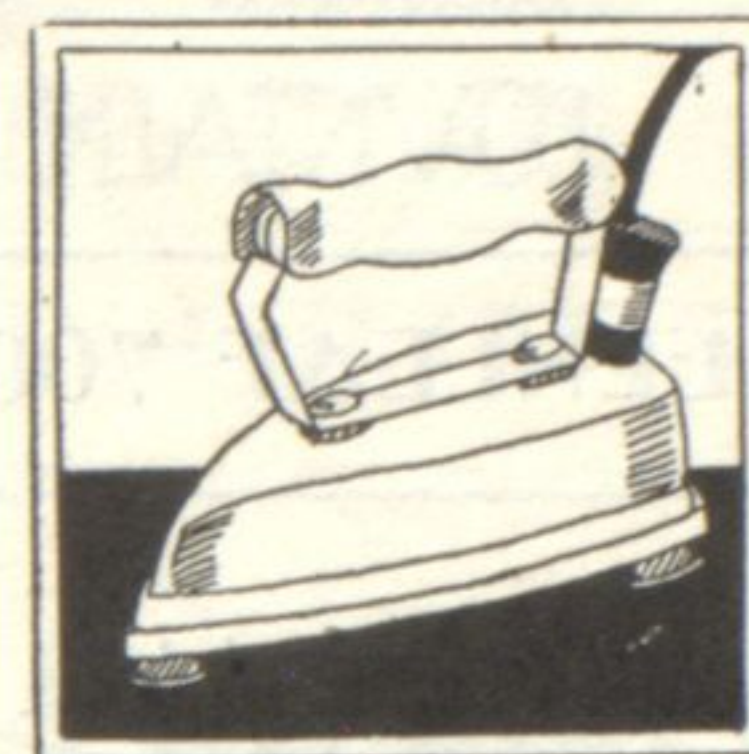

The Conover Washes Pots and Pans, too!

And now the Conover cleans your pots and pans as quickly and immaculately as it does your dishes—in a specially made rack that fits into the machine.

Note, too, these features:

1. Approved by leading household authorities.
2. Easy to operate.
3. No new plumbing is required.
4. An attractive addition to any kitchen, with its gleaming white enamel and graceful legs.
5. Washes all your dishes thoroughly at one time.

Let us demonstrate it with your own dishes in your own home.

$4.50 Waage Iron in Colors $3.85

In green, red, blue, and yellow ever-wearing porcelain enamel finish—far more durable than nickel plate—does not tarnish. Heat does not affect it. Waage 6 lb. iron, $3.85.

1-qt. Aluminum Stew Pan 49c

Heavy Lifetime aluminum is three times as thick as ordinary aluminum. A 1 qt. aluminum stew pan. A larger size for boiling vegetables and soups, holds 2 3/4 quarts, $1.50 value, 98c.

$1.50 Aluminum Steamer $1.19

A steamer cooks foods by the most scientific method, conserving all nutritious mineral juices. The bottom part may be used separately as a sauce pan, with its cover which fits both top and bottom.
