Elect New Officers to Direct Student Council

The student council of New Trier High school elected officers recently. George Brown, Wilmette, was named president; Gretchen Dreever, Glencoe, vice-president, and Edward Cullen, Wilmette, secretary. The big problem to come before the council is the working out of a budget system for student expenses. The plan was given the approval of the high school board.

Kenilworth Village Board Chooses New Meeting Day

Meetings of the Kenilworth Village board henceforth will be held on the first Monday of each month instead of on the second Monday, as has been the case in the past. Decision to change the time of meeting was made at the last regular session of the board. The next meeting will be held November 5.
