Famous Comedy Team to Be at Community House

One of screendom's most famous comedy teams, Karl Dane and George K. Arthur, the comedians responsible for "Rookies" and "Baby Mine," will appear at the Community House next Tuesday night in "Circus Rookies," said to be the most hilarious of the season's comedies.

In this film Dane and Arthur do their stuff against a circus background, Dane as an odd-job man around the "big top," who essays his hand at lion taming, and Arthur as a loquacious, quick-witted press agent. They run afoul of each other when they both lose their hearts to a dainty, pretty trapeze artist, played by Louise Lorraine.

On Friday of next week the Community House will show Douglas Fairbanks in "The Three Musketeers," which is due in Chicago soon as a stage production.

Granada Will Show What Women Are Talked About

"The best talkie yet" is one critic's comment on "Women They Talk About," sound picture to be shown at the Granada for one week beginning this Saturday, October 27. Dirty politics and misunderstanding play a lively game of leap frog in this film. One of the big assets of the picture is Irene Rich's warm, gay, expressive voice. Old Claude Gillingwater gives a very entertaining performance as the chronically peppery patrician who is mad at the mayor—once his office boy.

Norshore Will Show Sound Film, "Our Dancing Daughters"

The modern girl and the modern girl's parents are the subject of an intensive study in the picture, "Our Dancing Daughters," which will inaugurate the showing of sound films at the Norshore theater this Saturday, October 27. The picture is a gripping and glamorous one because of the brilliant acting of its principals, the beauty of sets and scenery, and the smartness of apparel and grooming.

Three daughters appear for your consideration. They are:

Diana, honest and unafraid; pal of many men who adore and respect her; child of intelligent, up-to-date parents, who, having taught her cleanliness and self-respect, allow her full liberty and accord her full trust—a trust she never betrays. Joan Crawford is Diana.

Beatrice, second of the trio, is the warm-hearted, impulsive, wistful daughter of a father and mother who have been too strict—parents doubtful and suspicious, imagining evil where none exists, parents who have lacked understanding, and so failed to win confidence. Dorothy Sebastian is Beatrice.

Anne is the third daughter and she is the tricky, rotten-minded child of a gold digging mother. From babyhood this girl has been urged to marry a rich man. She has been schooled in the art of deceptive flattery and taught physical purity because "a man wants his money's worth." She drinks privately, but publicly shyly spurns even a sip. Anita Page is Anne.

On the stage Al Kvale and the Jazz Collegians will present "Sunny Spain." The Norshore theater symphony orchestra will present several orchestral features.

P. T. A. Notes

Ash street, Tuesday morning, October 23, to discuss entertainment plans for the year. Members of the committee are Mrs. Forest R. Lowrey, Mrs. George H. Dovenmuehle, Mrs. J. J. Owen, Mrs. Lloyd Schipfer, Mrs. E. V. L. Brown, Mrs. G. E. Frazer, Mrs. C. W. Olson, Mrs. Herbert Nelson, Mrs. L. M. Butler.

The meeting of Miss Mee's group, scheduled for Monday afternoon, October 29, has been postponed to the same hour and place one month later, Monday, November 25. The change was made necessary by a conflict with some institute meetings.

Skokie School

Nearly 400 parents of Skokie school went through the day's program of their respective children at the "Go to School Night" on Monday evening. It was a much better informed group of parents and a more sympathetic and enthusiastic group who finished the day's activities of arithmetic, grammar, art, printing, music, physical education, social science and the many other subjects and passed through the lunch line for refreshments. During the customary lunch period all the pupils met in the auditorium for a greeting from the principal, Mr. Logan.

As a fitting close for the evening a short program was given by the glee clubs under the direction of Lawrence Yingling, and the orchestra under the direction of Donald Cawelti. Mrs. Hobart Young, chairman for Skokie
