

Pick Hockey Players for Wednesday Game With English Women

Weeks of practice among north shore women's hockey squads reached a high point this week when the team to represent the north shore against the invading English women will be chosen. Members of the North Shore Hockey team will be named this Sunday after practice games and will meet the English team in a game next Wednesday, November 7.

It will be played at the New Trier high school field at 3 p. m. following a high school game. Nearly 50 women have been practicing on the Evanston, Indian Hill and Skokie teams, which comprise the North Shore Hockey association, to develop a team strong enough to meet the English group which is touring the United States, winning all its games.

English Teams Undefeated

The English players have been meeting important teams in the east. Some of the scores are: English 9, 1927 All-American team 1; English 19, Baltimore 0; English 10, Philadelphia 1; and English 19, Earlham 0. Teams representing England have been undefeated in thirty years.

Following is a list of the English players who are coming to Winnetka: Miss K. Doman (L. Back) Captain, East and Kent; Miss J. Brown (R. Inner) South and Surrey; Miss M. V. Chamberlain (C. Half) Vice-Captain, West and Wiltshire; Miss T. J. Lingwood (L. Wing) West and Somerset; Miss M. M. Knott (R. Back) East and Kent; Miss S. Anderson (Goal) East and Kent; Miss N. Albright (L. Inner) South and Surrey; Miss K. Finnimore (L. Wing) South and Surrey; Miss E. M. Bavin (R. Back) East and Hertfordshire; Miss B. Ellis (R. Wing) South and Surrey; Miss A. F. Cattell (R. Half) East and Kent; Miss B. E. Newell (L. Wing or Inner) Midlands and Bedfordshire; Miss E. V. Fowler (R. Back) West and Dorset; and Miss E. Last (C. Forward) West and Devon.

They Are Seasoned Players

Women have been playing field hockey in England much longer than in this country. They start it when young, and numbers playing are large. In later years the game's appeal has been spreading in this country and teams have been developing to make better showings against the foreign women who visit the country each year.

Two of the women in the North Shore association have played on the United States team, Mrs. Lewis Taylor and Miss Peggy Waidner. Miss Waidner was east this fall and played with the English visitors, scoring the only goal for the Americans who were defeated 9 to 1.

Mrs. Taylor competed against them also this fall, playing with the Earlham college team which suffered a 19 to 0 defeat.

Twenty-seven women have been chosen from the Indian Hill, Skokie and Evanston teams to compose the squad for the all-North Shore team and are announced by Mrs. Thomas McLaren, president of the association. They are: Mrs. Lewis Taylor, Miss Bernice Bulley, Mrs. Henry Tenney, Miss Marian Montgomery, Miss Carmela Galuzzi, Miss Iris Boulton, Miss Virginia Ingram, Miss Peggy Waidner, Miss Elizabeth Lamson, Miss Margaret Kimbark, Miss Barbara Groves, Mrs. McLaren, Miss Margaret Delay,

Miss Agnes Beisemeir, Mrs. G. V. Lewis, Mrs. Hallett Thorne, Miss Irma Otten, Mrs. Harriet Leonard, Miss Margaret Drew, Mrs. Harry Allen, Mrs. Paul Starr, Miss Alice King, Miss Marian Jay, Miss Peg Harding, Mrs. Emmons Blaine, Jr., Miss May Fogg and Miss Margot Atkin.

To Pick First Team After Saturday

Picking of a first string team from this squad will depend on Saturday's practice and a practice game Sunday during the Chicago playday program. Last week end one team built from this squad was defeated by the Madison club 4 to 1 at Indian Hill while another team won from the Madison women 5 to 2.

The English women will be here Saturday to meet the all-Chicago team at 11 a. m. in Washington park, and their north shore appearance at New Trier field is next week Wednesday.

There will be a high school girls game before the main game next Wednesday between two teams which have been chosen from six schools in surrounding territory. Each of these schools chose five girls to represent them and the teams have been chosen from these 30 girls. These schools are allied members of the North Shore Field Hockey association. They will play at 2 o'clock. Following is the line-up:
