Life of Indian Portrayed Vividly at Skokie D. A. R.

The Skokie Valley chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met on Monday afternoon, October 29, at Mrs. George Kingsley's home, Cumnor road, Kenilworth with about twenty-five members present. It was the first regular meeting of the season.

Mrs. Fannie Cope the regent, presided. After the usual preliminary exercises and the reports of the officers and committee chairmen present, the program of the afternoon was enjoyed. Mrs. Harold Ickes gave a most interesting and illuminating talk about the American Indian, telling the group especially about the Pueblo and the Navajo tribes. She has just recently arrived from the southwest, where she spends a part of each year, and where she has had ample opportunity to study the traits, customs, aims, religion and habits of the Indians.

Mrs. Ickes has a very pleasing way of telling of this New Mexican country and her listeners could vividly picture the amethyst foothills, the undulating mesas, or the brilliant stars and vibrant skies. They saw the Mexican adobe huts hung with sacred corn of many colors or the picturesque fireplace forming an artistic corner in some quaint, characteristic, mud-floored living room. She told of the Indians' symbolic religion and their religious rites and dances, of their home life, their sleeping quarters, their baking ovens, their weaving and pottery industries and lastly something of the Government schools.

It was a very fine program and very much appreciated by the chapter. Delicious tea was served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be on the fourth Monday in November, at Mrs. David DeCamp's home on Abbottsford road, Kenilworth.

Mrs. L. C. Bouchard, 222 Oxford road, Kenilworth, is entertaining a number of friends at luncheon at the Club Vista Del Lago Wednesday, November 7.

Let the LAUNDRY do it!

A Seventh of her life spent in slavery

ONE whole day every week she forces herself to go through the tiresome strain of doing the family washing. It would be almost as bad if she had a laundress come to her home to do the laundry work, for she would still be kept at home with the mess and bother of washday. A phone call will give back to you that seventh you may be slaving away.
