

Steinway is Essentially A Piano for the Home

Many of the world's foremost concert artists say they have received the greatest enjoyment from the Steinways in their homes. The superiority of the Steinway as a concert piano is unquestioned, of course, yet these artists feel that the Steinways in their drawing rooms are more valuable to them.

Chief Peterson Is Back From Month's Rest in Minnesota

Chief of Police W. M. Peterson returned Wednesday evening from a month's vacation spent in the wilds of upper Minnesota, this being the first time he has been able to get away from his official duties for any length of time for two years.

The chief found, however, upon his return, that everything had gone along smoothly during his absence and is already looking forward to next year's vacation leave. The chief was unable to get away last year, as at that time the department was in the midst of its investigation of the Crowe case.

Sergeants Harry Enault, Glen Boyd and Ed Cummings as well as every other member of the department, were "on their toes" every minute during the chief's absence, determined to present him an absolutely clean slate when he returned to his desk.

Mrs. Peterson accompanied her husband on his trip. The party also included Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lederer, of the Park Lane Hotel, Chicago, former residents of Winnetka.

Mr. Lederer was taken ill soon after reaching camp, and was forced to return to the hospital at Rochester, Minn., from whence he later returned home.

The Minnesota camp was near Inger, thirty-five miles off the blazed trail, in the Sand lake and Bowstring lake region.

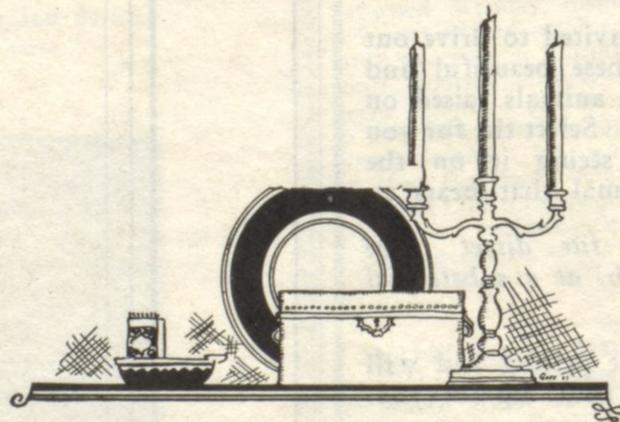

The weather up north during October, Chief Peterson says, was not unlike that experienced here; not the most favorable for a successful hunting trip, but nevertheless thoroughly enjoyable.
