GIVES TALK ON BOOKS
 Miss Esther Gould who conducts our Book Review each week is giving as in former years a series of radio talks on books, at station WHT, Wrigley building, every Wednesday morning at 10:20.

Parents Learn How Again

Parents of freshmen and sophomore students at New Trier High school visited classes Thursday, October 25. It was annual Parents' Day at the school and here we note some of the scholars showing dad and mother just how it's done geometrically, we believe.

For the Family

There is no better drink—and no better food—than milk from the WINNETKA SANITARY DAIRY. It should be used with every meal of the day in some form. Purity, wholesomeness, and every goodness in our milk.

IF

more folks knew about the unique Luncheon service at THE VERA MEGOWEN, more would enjoy better food—better health.

It is important what and where you eat. Learn the art of dining out healthfully.

Miss Megowen, a University graduate and an authority on balanced foods, personally selects all food stuffs and plans all menus. Each and every meal is perfectly balanced.

Choice meats, a great variety of fresh vegetables carefully prepared, insuring wholesome food for grown-ups as well as children.

Kenilworth Girl Scouts Hold Preliminary Meets

Troop 2 of the Joseph Sears school Girl Scouts met for the first time last week, and held a second meeting Tuesday of this week, under the direction of Miss Gertrude Herrick, assistant director of physical education at the school. At present the Girl Scouts are working on their tenderfoot tests.

Mrs. John Marshall Roberts, of 328 Warwick road, Kenilworth, returned recently from Wellesley, Mass., where she visited her daughter, Caroline, at Dana hall.

FOR THOSE WHO TRAVEL
 IN NOVEMBER

The Opera is in the full glow of its season, & one must hear it once at least during the winter, in New York or Chicago—and dress accordingly, of course. For all travel occasions, sports and evening regalia of distinction
