

WILLIAM J. STRATTON

My Pledge to the People of Illinois:

I WILL ask for no appropriations from the Legislature except for the legitimate and economical maintenance of the office of Secretary of State.

I will exert all my influence to reduce public expenditures wherever possible and to curtail appropriations and thereby seek to reduce the state tax rate for the benefit of the farmers, the laboring men and women, the manufacturers and the business people of our commonwealth generally.

Under no circumstances will I accept any emoluments other than the salary fixed by law for the Secretary of State.

I will devote all my time exclusively to the duties and responsibilities of the office of Secretary of State and will attend personally to the proper and efficient functioning of this important state executive department.

Truth About Stratton from One Who Knows Him Best:

"NO official in the State of Illinois ever gave more hearty and intelligent support to the cause of education and recreation sponsored by the educational forces of the State of Illinois than William J. Stratton during his administration as Director of Conservation.

"I most sincerely urge all men and women of the State of Illinois who are interested in the mental and physical development of our children to recognize the public service rendered by Mr. Stratton and not overlook the opportunity to give him their vote and support, irrespective of party affiliations, for Secretary of State."

(Signed) T. Arthur Simpson,
County Supt. of Schools,
Lake County.

For Secretary of State

New Trier Frosh-Soph Team Crushes Deerfield

Last Saturday Deerfield's Frosh-Soph team visited New Trier's lower-class football men and the New Trierites, finding the visitors' line vulnerable at nearly every point, broke through it for a 58 to 0 score. The Gray and Green second team entered the fray in the second half and while they couldn't keep up the point-a-minute playing of the first team they managed to make several touchdowns. This was the Indian Hill Frosh-Soph's first victory and they made great whoopee about it. They snake-danced around the running track while the varsity game was in progress and afterwards were rewarded with a treat at the soda-fountain.

GUIDE-LECTURE TOURS

Next week's guide-lecture tours at Field Museum of Natural History will begin Monday, November 5, with "Navaho and Hopi Indians" at 11 a. m. and "Birds of the Chicago Area" at 3 p. m. Other days at the same hours subjects will be: Tuesday, "Diamonds and Other Precious Stones," and "Trees and Wood Products"; Wednesday, "Glimpses of Chinese Life" and "Mammals of the Chicago Area"; Thursday, two general tours; and Friday, "Early Man" and "Meteorites, Moon and Earth." These tours of museum exhibits under the guidance of staff lecturers are free. Parties assemble inside the north entrance.

BOYS OF SIX SCHOOLS IN CONFERENCE HERE

Tri-Ship Club at New Trier Is Host to Representatives of Suburban League

Sixty boys representing six high schools—New Trier, Evanston, Deerfield, Oak Park, Proviso, and Morton—members of the recently organized suburban high school league, attended a conference at New Trier High school last Saturday morning. The conference was held under the auspices of the Tri-Ship club of New Trier.

Decision to continue the inter-school conference and the election of temporary officers for the suburban league boys' council were the principal matters taken up last Saturday. Alan Hoagland, of New Trier, chairman of the committee which arranged for the meeting, was elected temporary chairman, and Duncan Johnson, of the Evanston Township High school, was named temporary secretary.

Name Representatives

Each school appointed two student representatives and a faculty sponsor to meet on December 8 for the purpose of perfecting the organization. Donald Frisbie, faculty sponsor of the Tri-Ship club, Alan Hoagland and George Cogswell will represent New Trier. It was decided to make a definite effort to stimulate contacts between high schools on other than competitive bases.

Alan Hoagland presided over the boys' conference which opened with greetings from New Trier to the visitors. George Brown, president of the New Trier student council, spoke on behalf of the boys of the school. George Cogswell, president of the Tri-Ship club which sponsored the event, gave the greetings of that organization, and Morrie Nelson, halfback on the New Trier football team and captain-elect of the basketball team, welcomed the visitors on behalf of the athletes.

Following the speeches of welcome Frederick A. Kahler, dean of boys at New Trier and president of the suburban league, stressed the need for student cooperation in order to insure the best of relationships among all schools.

Talks explaining the work of the boys' clubs in each of the schools that are members of the suburban league were then given by the following boys: George Cogswell, New Trier; Duncan Johnson, Evanston; William Stewart, Deerfield; George Heidler, Oak Park; Albert Matousek, Morton; and Robert Dearborn, Proviso. Following these student talks brief remarks were made by the faculty sponsors from the various schools.

Guests of Tri-Ship Club

The sixty boys attending the conference were guests of the Tri-Ship club at lunch in the New Trier lunch room and also at the New Trier-Kenosha football game in the afternoon.

"Everyone felt that a great deal had been done to promote the best of relationships between the schools," said Donald Frisbie, faculty sponsor of the Tri-Ship club, in commenting on the results of the conference.
