

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford H. Smith of Evanston announce the birth of a son, who has been named Clifford Hinckley, on Friday, November 2, at the Evanston hospital. Mrs. Smith was formerly Miss Virginia Simmons of Winnetka.

AID IN ZONING FIGHT

Winnetka has joined with other north shore villages in contributing financial assistance in defraying the expense of the Lake Bluff zoning case through the higher courts. The Village council Wednesday evening appropriated $200 as its share.

VISITING HERE

Mrs. Thomas E. Coleman arrived in Winnetka Wednesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Walter Buchen, 605 Arbor Vitae road, for a few days. Mrs. Coleman is en route from a trip abroad to her home in Madison, Wis.

COVER HALL FLOORS

Floors of various offices at the Village hall, with the exception of the Council chamber, are to be covered with linoleum. The contract for this work, costing $1,075, was awarded to Carson Pirie Scott and company, by the Village council Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Charles H. ReQua and her daughter, Mrs. Stewart Johnson, who have been visiting Mrs. ReQua's sister in Harrogate, England, are sailing today, and will be in New York next week.

Drama Club Offers Season's Initial Play Nov. 14-15

Wednesday and Thursday evenings, November 14 and 15, "The Classilis Engagement," by St. John Hankin, will be presented by the Community Drama club at Community House at 8:15 o'clock. A notable cast is expected to combine to make this good entertainment. Those acting have been rehearsing nightly under the direction of Mrs. Sherman Goble.

Able members of the club are taking charge of the settings and properties. Stage settings are being taken care of by Mrs. Charles Karnopp, assisted by Mrs. Ray Feagans. Frank Plowman will be in charge of the lighting. Mrs. Frank Plowman, assisted by Mrs. Chester Mathews and Mrs. Coleman Ross, is taking care of the properties. Mrs. Lyman Weld, assisted by Mrs. William Van Horne, Miss Mildred Julian, and John H. Jameson, is doing the make-up. Others working behind the scenes include Mrs. Vernon Welsh, costumes; Everitt Fox, assisted by Dr. H. A. Orvis and Albert Bechtelheimer, stage crew. Mrs. Lawrence Norem has been in charge of the publicity.

C. of C. to Hear Talk on "Retail Advertising"

Members of the Winnetka Chamber of Commerce will listen to an address on "Retail Advertising," at the November meeting, at Community House, next Monday evening.

The subject, one in which every member of the Chamber is interested, will be handled by F. W. Bond of 899 Ash street. Mr. Bond is president of the F. W. Bond company, of Chicago, an advertising concern.

The meeting will be preceded by a dinner which will be served at 7 o'clock.

EXHIBITION

of western paintings; the work of

JACK VAN RYDER

Cowboy artist of the Southwest.

We are exceedingly fortunate in announcing this exhibition of Mr. Van Ryder's work, beginning on Monday, November 12th and continuing for one week at our Studios in Winnetka.

Mr. Van Ryder has just completed a one-man exhibition at the Montrose Galleries in New York and his work attracted the favorable comment of all Eastern newspapers, magazines and art publications.

We are also pleased to advise that Mr. Van Ryder will appear in person at this exhibition.
