Dr. Herbert L. Willett, minister
Sunday morning, November 11, an Armistice Day service will be observed, and Dr. Willett will speak on the subject, "After Ten Years." The congregation is asked to be in its place five minutes before eleven o'clock. Promptly at eleven the two minutes of silence will be observed.

Wednesday evening of next week, November 14, at 8 o'clock, Dr. Willett continues the series of lectures on "Great Poets of the Ages." The subject will be "Shakespeare, the Myriad-minded." Other talks in the series will be on Milton, Goethe, Wordsworth, Browning and Tennyson.

The Junior Neighbors will make their annual visit to the homes in the village on next Sunday afternoon to receive the offerings for the Red Cross fund. It is earnestly requested that the friends remain at home to receive the visitors, or leave their contribution for them.

Dr. Willett's subject on Sunday morning, November 18, will be, "Vision and Achievement." It will be an interpretation of the new chapel at the University of Chicago.
