

WINNETKA TALK

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1928

SKETCH OF INTERIOR OF LLOYD HALL
WINNETKA PUBLIC LIBRARY
OTIS C. FULLER ARCHT. 60 N. MICH. AVE. CHICAGO

A GIFT TO WINNETKA—Trustees of Winnetka Free Public Library announce the opening Nov. 19, of Lloyd Hall, which was made possible by John Bross Lloyd. The Library was built as a memorial to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bross Lloyd by their children. John Bross Lloyd urged that part of a generous gift made by him be used to decorate Lloyd Hall thereby providing an adult reading room. The architect's drawing presented gives an idea of how Lloyd Hall will appear.