

Women Voters' News

The November meeting of the Winnetka League of Women Voters was held at Community House last Tuesday. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Ferry, Mrs. William F. Brown, the first vice-president, presided over the meeting.

It was "Precinct Day" and members were seated at luncheon at tables according to the precinct to which each belonged. The precinct chairmen acted as hostesses.

The chairman of the Membership committee, Mrs. Dudley K. French, announced the results of the recent membership drive, explaining that final figures are not available as yet for memberships are still coming in to the committee. To date, 260 new members, 33 sustaining members, 85 members for the Chicago Forum have been reported making a grand total of 1,032. She also announced the prize winner in each precinct who had secured the largest number of members in her territory:

- 6th Precinct—Mrs. H. D. Frankel, 22.
- 7th Precinct—Mrs. Robert V. O'Brien, 18.
- 8th Precinct—Mrs. Walter Nielson, 14.
- 9th Precinct—Mrs. Isador Lang, 15.
- 10th Precinct—Mrs. W. G. Hibbard, III, 19.
- 11th Precinct—Mrs. W. J. Eldridge, 11.
- 12th Precinct—Mrs. Carleton Prouty, 15.
- 13th Precinct—Mrs. W. G. Forrest, 16.
- 14th Precinct—Mrs. George Karnes, 22.
- 15th Precinct—Mrs. D. W. Mercer, 22.

Mrs. A. J. Boynton, Chairman of the International Relations committee, presented a resolution endorsing and urging the early ratification of the Multilateral Treaty which is to come before the United States senate for action during the coming session in December.

"The Prodigal Son"
Sermon Subject at Elm Street Church

The Rev. R. J. Devine of Oak Park, who is conducting an evangelistic campaign at the First Scandinavian Evangelical church, 886 Elm street, Winnetka, will speak at a special young people's service tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock. At the evening service, which begins at 7:45, Mr. Devine will begin a series of six messages on "The Prodigal Son." The theme for Sunday evening is "Securing His Share." The choir will sing.

Monday night the subject will be "Leaving Loved Ones." The subjects for Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings are: "A Fool and His Fortune," "Drinking the Dregs," "Hungry for Home," and "A Royal Reception."

Mr. Devine is winning many friends on the North shore, it is stated. He began this series of meetings last Sunday night with a sermon on "Lot's Wife." The interest during the week-night meetings is increasing from night to night.
