

Lee Says:

THAT old saying that IF you make the best MOUSE trap in the world THE world will come to YOU after it, may be true BUT you have to have a REAL mouse trap. WE believe that LUICK'S Milwaukee ICE cream is just THAT. Did you ever TRY it? One trial WILL convince you.

OPEN LLOYD HALL IN LIBRARY NEXT MONDAY

place. Tables are in the center as well as at the side of the hall.

The atmosphere of the old English or Elizabethan libraries is in the hall, coupled with the comforts of the present day. Around the walls are shelves filled with books unused in library service. Old favorites predominate. The reader will not be compelled to confine himself to these books, but can take out a book from the library above in the regular way, if he desires. The hall will be open for adults only whenever the library is open. Very simple rules have been formulated in view of the freedom from restraint and supervision that will surround the reader.

As far as we know, no library of this type and size has such a retreat, and it is hoped that all our library's adult subscribers will not only become acquainted with the hall, but in its use help demonstrate that such a spot in our community, free from supervision, can be equally free from those abuses that exist in the big cities.
