Ladies' Night Next Big Event for Masonic Lodge

As the present Masonic year draws to a close Winnetka Masons are planning to make Ladies' Night, Friday evening, November 23, the outstanding event of the year. On this night they want to see their temple crowded with the wives, sisters, daughters and mothers and all Maçons living in the community.

There will be cards, with prizes; there will be music for those who wish to trip the light fantastic toe, and there will be refreshments to top off the evening.

Ed. J. Thompson, junior warden of the lodge is in charge of the evening's festivities.

TO HAVE HARVEST DINNER

The Aspenwall circle of the North Shore Methodist Episcopal church, Glencoe, will give a harvest home dinner at the church Wednesday evening, November 21, at 6 o'clock. A general invitation has been extended and it has been asked that those intending to go make reservations on or before November 19, by calling Mrs. Carleton Prouty, Winnetka 1757.

Strong Winds Fan Skokie Fire Into Big Conflagration

The picturesque Skokie staged a spectacular celebration Wednesday evening following the announcement of the North Shore Mosquito Abatement district, on Tuesday, that it had, on that day, terminated its mosquito warfare for this season.

A large area of the Skokie, from Winnetka avenue to Willow road and extending westward from Hibbard road almost to the river branch, was the scene of a great conflagration early Wednesday evening. The fire attracted hundreds of motorists whose cars lined both Willow and Hibbard roads for blocks, while the occupants "enjoyed" the spectacle.

High wind prevailing at the time swept the flames northward at a rate equalling the prairie fires of old.

Carl Miller, proprietor of the Winnetka Furniture company's store, located at 1500-02 Willow road, just east of the river branch, spent another night's vigil at his store to guard against an advance of the flames upon the building.

Large areas north of him have burned out during the past two weeks, he said, and recent fires to the south and west had about cleared the Skokie, with the exception of the vast area which was swept clean Wednesday evening.

As the blaze began to show signs of abating, Mr. Miller heaved a sigh of relief, declaring, "well, it will soon be over now for another year."

STUDY CLASS MEETS

The play-reading and study class of the Community Drama club will meet Tuesday evening, November 20, in the Camp Fire room of Community House. All interested are invited to be present at this organization meeting.

Competition Stimulates Thinking

You should select your Dry Cleaner as carefully as you certainly would your dressmaker, tailor, or other personal services which play such a vital part in your business and social life.

The present times demand intelligent attention and skill in cleaning and pressing. Synthetic fabrics of today require the finest possible workmanship in the cleansing process. Garments must be returned uninjured.
