Sixth Graders Present Special Book Week Play

The sixth grade pupils of Miss Olga Leap at the Hubbard Woods school presented an original Book Week assembly at that school Thursday morning. The pupils gave a playlet in which book characters were portrayed in costume. The play will be repeated next week when Miss Leap's room entertains for the mothers. Following are some of the characters portrayed and books from which they were taken: Buffalo Bill, Four Old Greeks, Merry Adventure of Robin Hood, Rootabaga Stories, Little Women, Winnie the Pooh, Adventure of Tom Sawyer, Adventure of Dr. Dolittle, Sara Crew, Hans Brinker, Alice in Wonderland, Ali Baba in Arabian Nights, Pinocchio, and Rip Van Winkle.

Bohemian Glass Blowers Visit Winnetka Schools

The Howell troupe of Bohemian glass blowers, headed by Dr. R. Marshall Howell, gave glass blowing demonstrations in the four public schools of Winnetka during the last week. The glass blowers appeared at the Skokie school last Friday, the Hubbard Woods and Greeley schools on Wednesday, and the Horace Mann school on Thursday. During his demonstrations Dr. Howell remarked that his grandfather had once made a glass dress for a Spanish princess, and that this dress can still be seen in a museum in Spain. The Howell troupe answered questions asked by the pupils.

Winnetkan Is Hostess to Tri-Delt Group

Mrs. George R. Roehm, 155 Church road, entertained the members of the North Shore alliance of Delta Delta Delta at its regular monthly luncheon and meeting last Wednesday. The members of the active chapter at Northwestern gave the program during the afternoon.

Mrs. Ernest Davies and Mrs. George F. Gonsalves of Winnetka, Mrs. Floyd McGrath of Wilmette, and Mrs. J. M. Egloff of Evanston assisted the hostess.

CHICKENS ONE DAY FROM THE FARM!

Why eat "cold storage" chicken, or chicken of uncertain age—perhaps held in unsanitary surroundings for weeks?

You can now secure the most delicious chicken you ever ate—carefully raised and scientifically fed and dressed—plump and delicious, full of tender, flavory meat, just one day from the rich, fertile poultry country of Iowa.

WAPSIE VALLEY CHICKEN

comes direct from our sanitary poultry plants in the country. Shipped in special containers. Wrapped in sanitary white parchment paper. The same poultry served in the most famous clubs and restaurants.
