

HIKERS' CABIN SOON TO RECEIVE "GUESTS"

Structure Provided Under Sponsorship of Waltonians Now Approaching Completion

The cabin provided by the Izaak Walton league for Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and all organizations and groups of Winnetka people who desire a hike to the woods or cozy quarters for an over-night camp, is soon to be a reality.

The project has been discussed at various times for the past five years, but less than that many months will now elapse before one of the largest, most convenient, and certainly the most picturesque cabin in the entire Chicago area, will have been completed.

Earl Weinstock, who has just finished sawing a yellow pine rafter. It was started in October, since which time work has been progressing, slowly, but surely. When it is completed, some sort of a house-warming is being planned, when it will be formally opened, and all who desire may journey to this spot in the woods and there behold how wisely the committee in charge has selected both site and design for the cabin.

The cabin is located on a five-acre tract, the north end of which is just across the line in Lake county, and is reached by means of a somewhat unfrequented lane, leading north from Dundee road, starting about one-half mile east of the Wheeling bridge.

The cabin is 66 feet in length, 24 feet wide and has a cement floor. On the east side of a large center room, 24 by 40 feet, is a huge fireplace, 13 feet across.

The kitchen and another large room are located on the first floor in the north end of the cabin, while above (Continued on Page 10)
