

Lee Says:—

SPEAKING of Thanksgiving, A CUSTOMER of ours was IN the store here YESTERDAY and we asked HIM what he had to be THANKFUL for and he NAMED a lot of things—HEALTH, for instance, AND friends, and a good HOME, and the fact that HE lives in Winnetka, ILLINOIS, and other THINGS too numerous to MENTION—and we might HAVE added several MORE reasons for his BEING thankful—we might HAVE suggested the fact THAT there's a certain DRUG store in this TOWN that carries in STOCK an almost UNLIMITED supply of HOUSEHOLD needs for the CONVENIENCE of himself AND family—but modesty PREVENTED that suggestion AND besides, he didn't NEED it, because we know HE already realizes that FACT.

"WHAT THE WELL DRESSED MAN WILL WEAR THIS FALL"

THE RED-HAIRED MAN

Suits & Overcoats

All shades of blue and grey with a touch of blue, black, light and dark grey.

Sportswear

Homespuns in oatmeal, silver, fancy indistinct mixtures. Avoid anything carrying red browns, or anything with a red or purple tone. In flannels, blues, greys, whites.

Furnishings

Here there is not so much latitude, as the red-haired man should wear very quiet clothes and furnishings. Anything with navy blue and grey is usually successful, but browns and red colorings should be avoided. The same remarks apply to hosiery and stockings.

We Serve Ourselves Best By Serving You First—and Best

We'd as well be frank. We're in business to make money. But we have found the best way to do that is to work for our customers first. See that they get full value, correct style, sound quality, honest service. That makes friends, and when a store makes friends it can't help growing. This is

The Store That Friends Built.
