

MOVES STUDIO

Edna Vognild, sister-in-law of Mrs. Alphonse Dennis, Jr., of 1044 Tower road, has moved her studio to 231 East Superior street, where she is now holding her annual exhibition of portraits and landscapes. A figure painting by Mrs. Vognild was purchased recently for the permanent collection of Illinois art at the Springfield museum.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Plumley of 302 Walnut street have taken up their residence in West Minneapolis. Alfred M. Plumley is living at 565 Orchard lane, Winnetka.

Reverse Gear Causes Odd Accident to Car

While driving a car on Linden avenue near Merrill, Hubbard Woods, last Saturday afternoon, Ed Nelson, of Geneva, in shifting gears accidentally threw the car into reverse. Mrs. J. A. Grant, of 266 Harbor street, Glencoe, who was driving a short distance in the rear of the Nelson car, was unable to avoid a collision. Neither of the drivers were injured, according to Officer A. E. Facchini.

Your Finest Blankets!

Our particular method cleanses them without shrinking . . . soft and fluffy as thistledown!

We know how much you prize your beautiful blankets. We know how particular you are—just what a vexing problem the cleaning of them has always been. And we want you to know about our particular blanket cleansing method.

First, they are washed—gently soused, without pounding or rubbing, in pure suds, then rinsed in floods of soft, crystal-clear water. The temperatures of suds and rinses are scientifically maintained—there can be no shrinking or hardening. There is no fading of colors.

Gusts of fresh, natural air dry the blankets—dry them to a luxurious softness caressing to the touch.

Send Also

Comforters, quilts, feather pillows, sleeping bags, curtains, washable rugs, sweaters, wool knit goods of every kind.

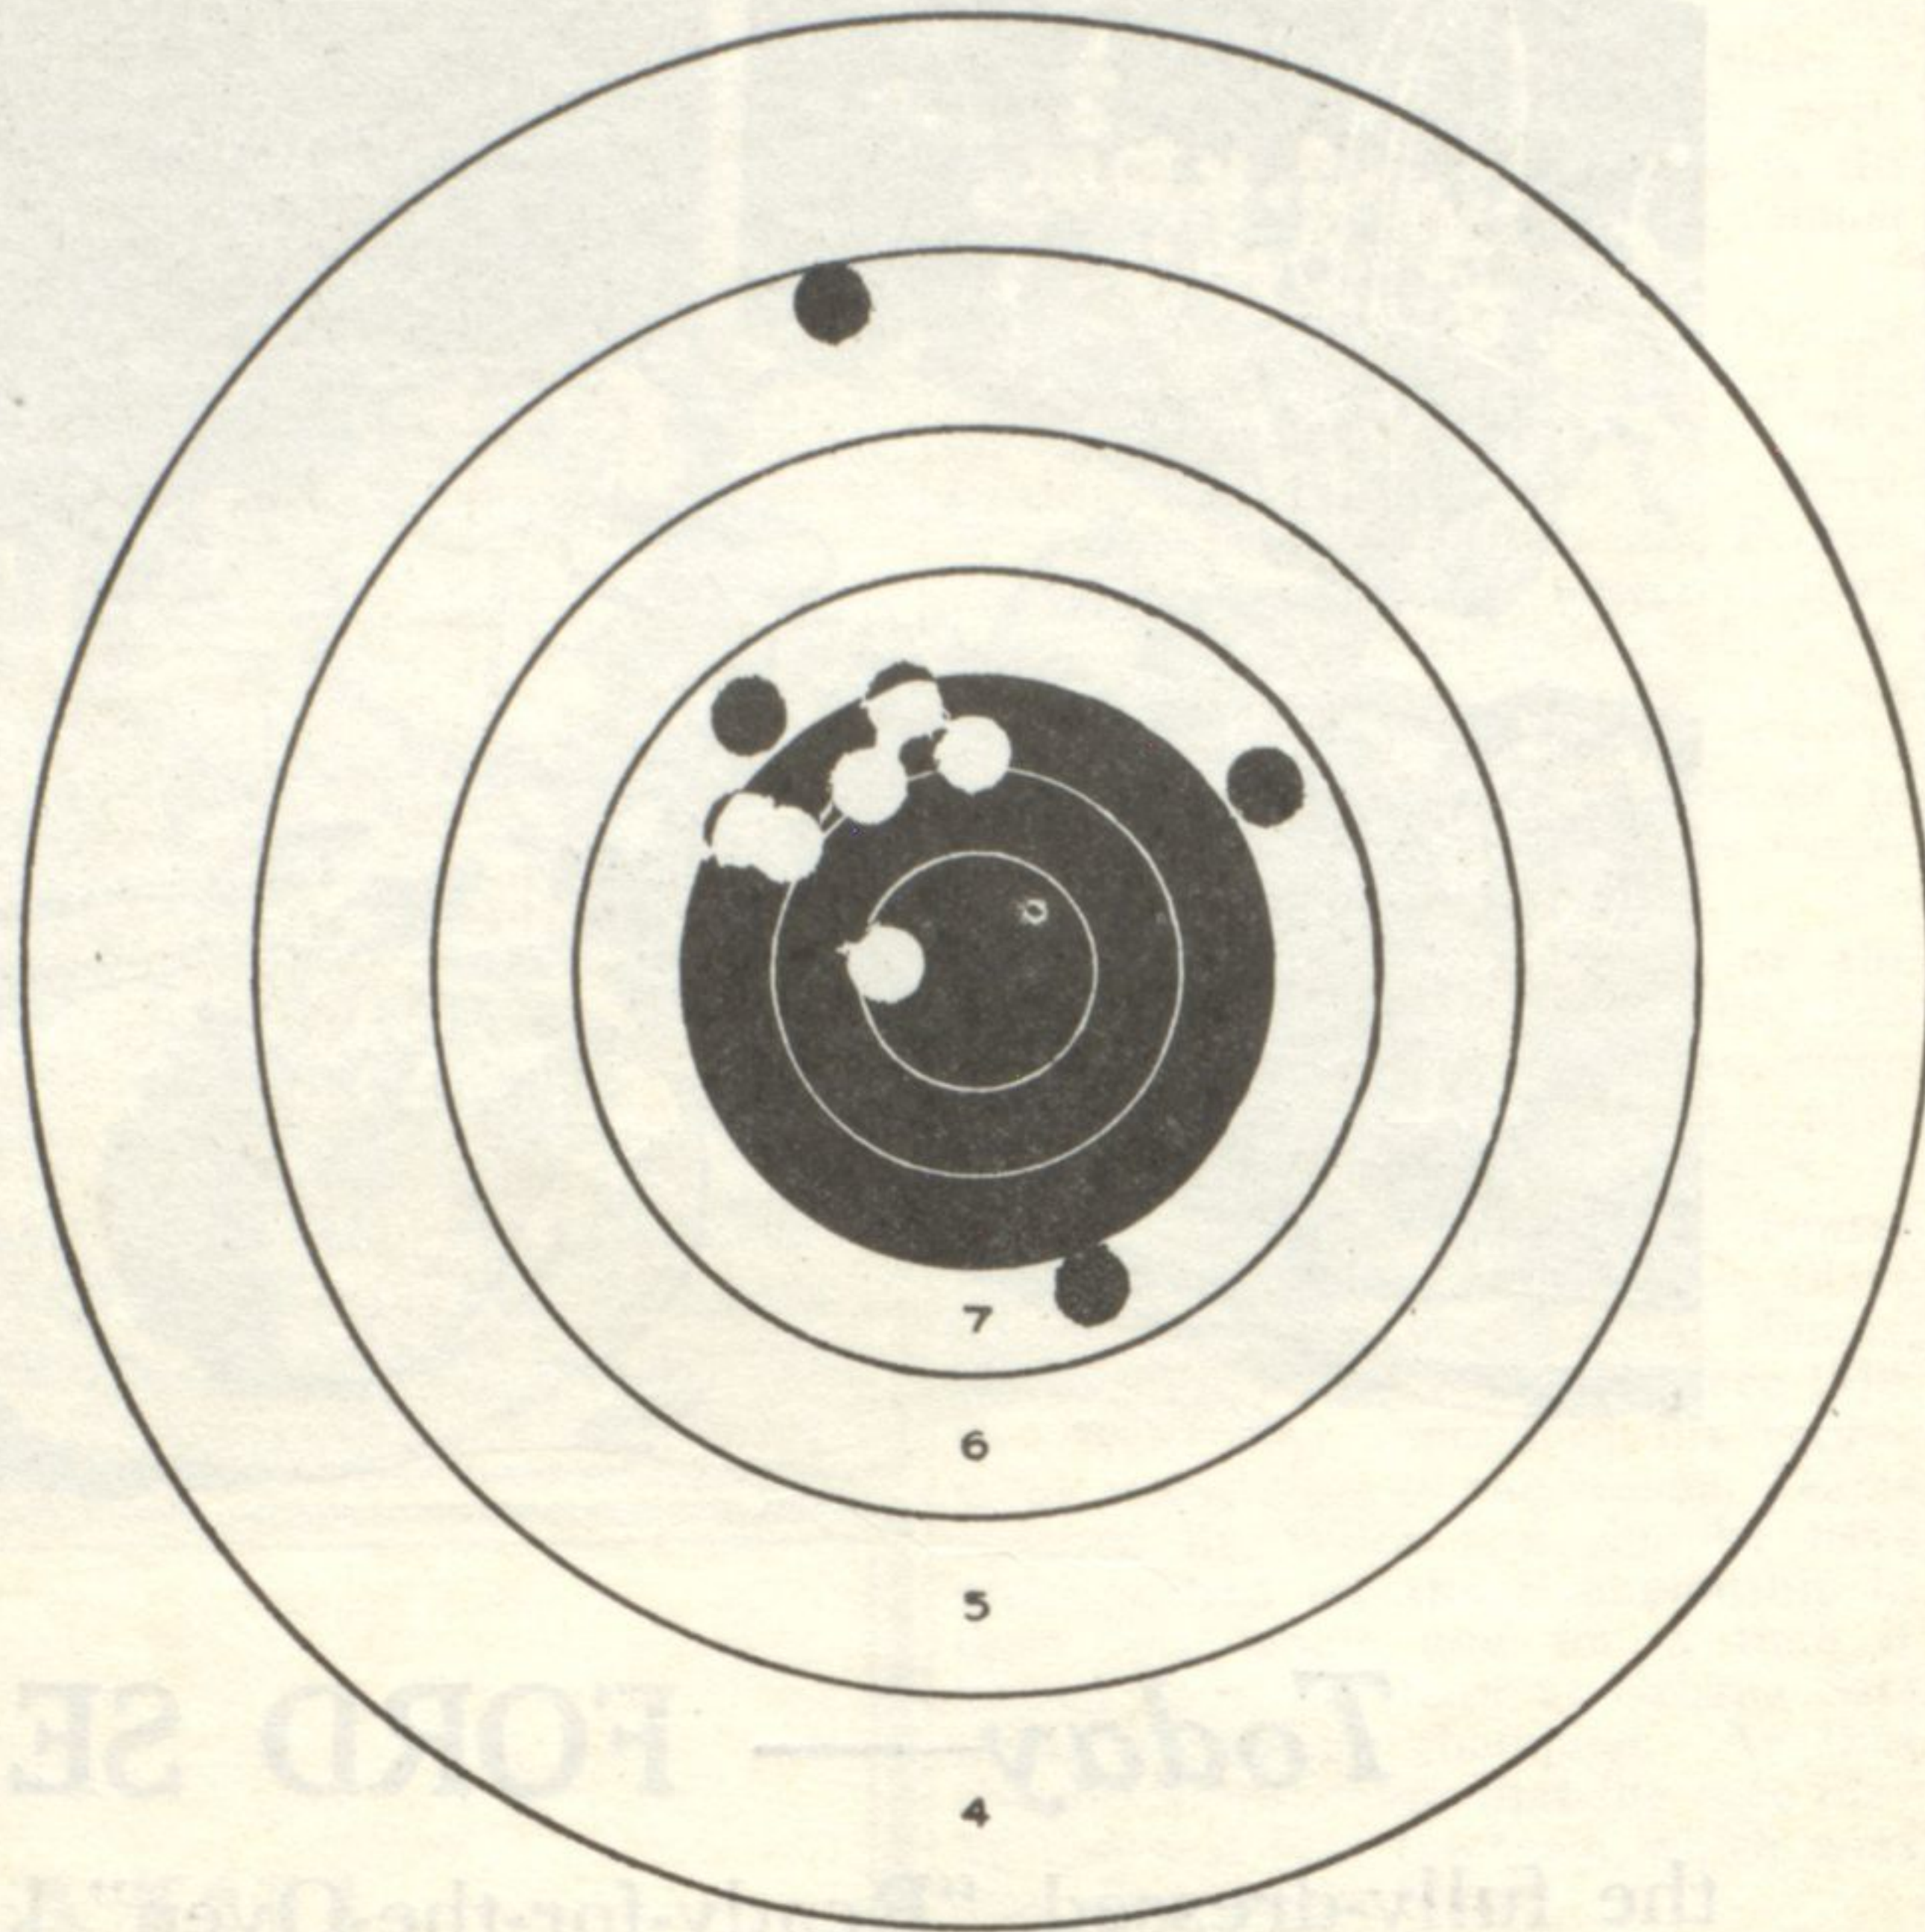

The
Washington Laundry

700-704 Washington Street EVANSTON, ILL.

Phone Wilmette 145

1887 . Forty-one . Years . of . Quality . Work . 1928

Just Try and Dodge 'em

Many good scores have been made by members of the Winnetka Police department this winter at the revolver range in the Village yards. Here is a recent target, at 20 yards, made by Chief W. M. Peterson, himself, with a score of 80, worthy of emulation by other members of the force who, at the weekly shoots are striving diligently to put an additional hole in the "bull's eye."

Norman Headla Seeks His Buddy, Harold Goodreds

Norman Headla, of Waukesha, Wis., is seeking the present whereabouts of Harold Goodreds, formerly of Winnetka, with whom he served in the Navy, as a member of Company J at Great Lakes in 1917. In a letter to Winnetka Post No. 10, American Legion, Mr. Headla says he is very desirous of locating his former comrade that he may aid him in support of his claim. Should you know Mr. Goodred's present address, kindly advise Adjutant J. Lee Rosberg, Winnetka, Ill., care of

Special Values in Silver Plate

for THANKSGIVING

- BREAD TRAYS - - WATER PITCHERS - - PLATTERS
- CAKE BASKETS - - COFFEE POTS
- SUGAR BOWLS - - CREAM PITCHERS - - COMPOTES
- FRUIT BOWLS - - GRAVY BOATS - - ETC.

Beautify Your Thanksgiving Table with the newest in dependable Silverware. Inspect the splendid assortment.

LEE NELSON - - Jeweler

1626 ORRINGTON AVENUE

(New Hahn Building)

UNIVERSITY 461