

Winnetka Girl Chooses December 5 for Wedding

Miss Edna Lea Spiesberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert T. Spiesberger of 990 Westmoor road, has chosen December 5, as the date of her wedding to Jack A. Schram, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Schram of Wilmette.

The ceremony will be read by Rabbi Louis Koppald at 6:30 o'clock, and will be followed by a dinner dance at the Blackstone hotel.

The bride-to-be's sister, Helen, will be her maid of honor and two younger sisters, Laura and Marian, will act as flower girls. Mr. Schram has asked Richard Feuchtwanger to act as best man.

Mr. Schram and his bride will reside in Chicago after a honeymoon spent in Florida and Cuba.

Mrs. Carl Bishop, 543 Chestnut street, who has been ill at the St. Francis hospital for the past two weeks, is now convalescing at her home. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Nickel of Tomahawk, Wis., and her small daughter, Jean, are Mrs. Bishop's houseguests at the present time.

Prof. Franklin B. Snyder Addresses Teachers' Club

Prof. Franklin Bliss Snyder of the department of English at Northwestern university, gave the second of two lectures before the Wilmette Teachers' club at its regular monthly meeting in the Stolp school library Monday night. Professor Snyder's subject was "Art, Literature, and Contemporary Civilization." The teachers' club is making plans for its annual Christmas dinner to be held at the Howard school next month, probably about December 17.

The affair is to be more elaborate than ever before arrangements indicate.

ANNOUNCING

The Most Modern, Most Versatile Musical Instrument Ever Offered!

THE VICTOR ELECTROLA RADIOLA 9-18

The Electrola, offered in combination with the Radiola in the No. 9-18 is the most powerful, flexible and versatile instrument of its type. Its repertoire is the sum total of the repertoire of all the world's greatest musicians and entertainers; it is all instruments, all voices, known to human ears. It speaks in an intimate whisper, or, at your will, brings to you the mightiest outpourings of the full symphony orchestra, undiminished in power, unaltered in quality. Through it, you play your favorite music, on your favorite instrument, by your favorite artist, when your mood dictates—and you play it with precisely that degree of power suited to your taste or the acoustic properties of your room. You not only select the program, but you conduct it!

The Radiola is the famous new R. C. A. 64, the last word in radio reproduction—more powerful, more faithful in its reproduction and more perfect than anything ever offered you in radio up to this time.
