Gordon Shaw Announces
New Radio Service Shop

Gordon Shaw announces that he has moved his radio service shop from the rear of the Milroy Music shop on Lincoln avenue to 811 Chestnut court. Mr. Shaw, who had been associated with the Milroy Music shop for the last six months, started a business of his own. His new business phone number is Winnetka 987.

Lucius W. Wakely Dies at Pelican Lake, Minn.

Lucius W. Wakely, father of Arthur W. Wakely, 234 Leicester road, Kenilworth, died Thursday, November 22, at Pelican Lake, Minnesota. Funeral services were held at Whitewater, Wisconsin, the old family home. Mr. Wakely was 70 years old and the son of Judge and Mrs. Eleanor Wakely of Omaha. He was a descendant of Lewis Morris, a signer of the Declaration of Independence. He attended the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, after which he entered the service of the C. B. & Q. R. R. at Chicago and remained with this road as general passenger agent at Omaha until two years ago.

Arthur Fletcher Seymour
Writes, Illustrates Book

Arthur Fletcher Seymour of 425 Cary avenue, Ravinia who is an author and designer of books has combined his many talents to produce a volume called "Across the Gulf." It is an account of his journey into Yucatan where he encountered primitive natives and relics of the arts of the highly cultured Mayos. The illustrations are woodcuts by Mr. Seymour.

KRISTOFF CAR STOLEN

A car owned by Frank Kristoff, of 1103 Cherry street, Winnetka, was stolen at Teatro del Lago early Saturday evening, but was recovered shortly after midnight by the police of North Chicago, where it had been abandoned.

Both the north and southbound temporary trestles bearing the elevated tracks between Church and Isabella streets, Evanston, have been completed and the work of laying tracks on the south-bound structure is being rushed.
