N. K. E. C. Observes Thanksgiving Festival

The Thanksgiving festival of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college was held in Harrison hall Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Pupils of the children's school and students of the college joined in a Thanksgiving gift of food and supplies for the Mary Crane Nursery school, Hull House, and the festival opened with the processional and presentation of the fruits, vegetables, and other gifts.

The Thanksgiving hymns and a short talk on Thanksgiving by Miss Edna Dean Baker, president of the college, was followed by a pageant of thanksgiving and praise, given by college students clad in the rich hues of the autumn and bearing the fruits of the harvest.

DANCE AT ROYCEMORE

The second dance of the Roycemore assembly for this season was enjoyed at the school Saturday evening. It took the nature of a cotillion and was in charge of a group of mothers who served as hostesses. They included Mrs. Frank W. Kingsley, Mrs. Sumner T. McCall, Mrs. William E. Johnson, Mrs. J. D. W. Archer, Mrs. Averill Tilden, all of Evanston; Mrs. L. A. Stewart, Mrs. T. W. Cowan and Mrs. William Freudenreich of Kenilworth, and Mrs. H. B. Watson of Winnetka; and Mrs. Francis E. Bromell of Edgewater.

Mrs. L. Carteret Fenno of Boston, Mass. has been visiting her son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. William B. McIlvaine, Jr., of 322 Ridge road. She is returning home tomorrow.

Evergreens—ever green!

GIVE your home grounds the dignified beauty of straight, sturdy evergreens of the type raised at the Charles Fiore Nurseries. When the ground is white with drifted snow and every other tree and shrub is bare and colorless, the rich dark green of evergreens will lend their welcome note of good cheer and hospitality.

Evergreens may be planted right now for successful growth. A telephone call will bring you any information you wish—or you may call at our nurseries and make your selections from our big stock.
