E. J. Hicks Entertains
N. T. Football Heroes

E. John Hicks, 241 Melrose avenue, Kenilworth, had as his guests at the Northwestern-Dartmouth game on Saturday the entire New Trier football squad consisting of fifty-six boys and their coaches, Mr. Aschenbach, Mr. Caton and Mr. Persing and their wives. Mr. Hicks has two sons who have played on the first team for several years. Hunter plays quarterback and Tom, halfback.

After the game he had the entire squad as his guests at the Skokie Country club for dinner. They were served in a private dining room of the club which was decorated in "Gray and Green," the New Trier colors. While the boys were having their supper, Mrs. Hicks entertained the coaches' wives in an adjoining room.

The boys had been looking forward to this wonderful party for a long time and it was a fitting celebration for the record made by the New Trier team this year. Hunter Hicks expects to enter Dartmouth next year.

Mrs. Ernest Palmer Heads
Drive for Girls' School

As president of the alumnae of the University School for Girls, located on Lake Shore drive, Chicago, Mrs. Ernest Palmer of Evanston is directing a drive for an endowment fund for which alumnae will work for months to come.

The school, which has been conducted by Miss Anna Haire for 32 years, must leave its present site and will build north of Lincoln Park in the near future, enabled by the endowment which it is seeking to raise among its friends and former students. These include many from Evanston, according to Mrs. Palmer, who heads the group of 400 women graduates of the school and was elected to office in October. There will be another meeting in January which she will call.

Dudley Crafts Watson is a member of the jury which will pass upon works offered by the All-Illinois Society of the Fine Arts at its third annual exhibition at the Stevens hotel from December 1-15.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ellsworth, 460 Cedar street, are spending a fortnight at Hot Springs, Ark. where they motored last week-end.

Mrs. J. G. White, 1446 Edgewood lane, entertained at luncheon and bridge at her home last Friday.
