William A. Schrei Dies While on Business Trip

William A. Schrei, 327 Cumnor road, Kenilworth, died suddenly Thursday, November 22, at Gainesville, Mo., where he had gone on business. Mr. Schrei was 61 years old. He is survived by his widow and five daughters, Dorothy, Betty June, and Jean, of Kenilworth, and Mrs. M. C. Van Alyea and Mrs. George Gardner, of Chicago. The funeral services were held at the residence Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Burial was at Memorial Park.

Mrs. Frank Cheeseman of the Orrington hotel, formerly of Kenilworth, has returned from the east where she was called because of the death of her mother.

Two Families Akin Lose Husband, Wife by Death Within Hour

Fate dealt strangely with Cliff B. Jacobs, 1302 Scott avenue, Hubbard Woods, and his sister, Mrs. Walter Harvey Lee, 1209 Astor street, Chicago, Wednesday of last week, when, at almost the same hour of that day, death claimed the wife of Mr. Jacobs and the husband of Mrs. Lee.

Mrs. Jacobs passed away at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, at the Grant hospital, Chicago, the very hour in which Mr. Lee died at the Mayo Brothers hospital, Rochester, Minn. Both had been ill about a month, and death, in both instances, followed surgical operations, Mr. Lee having submitted to a second operation by Dr. Charles Mayo only a few days before.

Mr. Jacobs was with his sister, at the bedside of her husband when he died, being unable to reach the hospital in Chicago in response to a message that Mrs. Jacobs had suffered a relapse and was dying.

Following her operation Mrs. Jacobs had recovered sufficiently in two weeks to permit Mr. Jacobs to return to Rochester to spend a day with his sister and Mr. Lee, whom he had accompanied to the Mayos a month previous.

Hold Double Funeral

A double funeral was held at the Jacobs residence, Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, with burial following at Graceland.

Mrs. Jacobs was 44 years of age. Before her marriage to Mr. Jacobs she was Mrs. Ada Valteau Clark, of Grinnell, Iowa, where she was reared and graduated from Grinnell college. She had been a resident of the north shore for the past seven years. Mr. Jacobs is president of the Ogilvie & Jacobs company, retail clothiers, 20 East Jackson boulevard, Chicago. A daughter, Angie, aged 7, and two sons, Henry Clark and Albert Clark, also survive. Her mother, Mrs. Angie Valteau, and a sister, Mrs. S. P. Brainard, both of Hollywood, California, and a brother, Frank Valteau, of Kansas City, Mo., were at her bedside when death came.

Noted As Benefactor

Mr. Lee, 66, was president of the Plymouth hotel, 22 West Van Buren street, Chicago, in which city he had lived for many years. Back in the early nineties he was engaged in merchandising, under the firm name of Koch & Lee, on West Van Buren street. He was a native of Toronto, Canada. He was a man who had done much for charity, and whose taking will be sadly missed not alone by his family, but by a very wide circle of friends, and particularly those who had experienced his kind, helpful ministrations and generosity. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Jessie W. Lee, and a daughter, Virginia, aged 4. Theodore Lee, of Chicago, is a brother.

Mrs. Lee and her daughter will now reside at the Jacobs residence.

AEROPLANE BALL IS BENEFIT

A representative number of north shore persons are interested in the Aeroplane ball on Monday, December 3, at the First Regiment armory which is being sponsored by the woman's board of the Illinois Children's Home and Aid society. Mrs. Waller Borden is chairman, Mrs. Jacob Baur, co-chairman of the affair.

A total of 566,702.00 kilowatt-hours of electricity was generated during September in Illinois. The utility plants of only three states showed greater production.

A total of 11,011 corn picking machines was operated in Illinois during the 1928 harvest—about one for each 20 farms.
