

Camp Fire Sparks

Camp Fire groups met as usual on Wednesday afternoon of last week in Community House.

New girls are coming in each week. Camp Fire is for all girls, and all girls are invited. Any Winnetka girl wishing to join has only to see the Chairman, Mrs. E. W. Wortley, at Community House. Girls eleven years of age or over are eligible for membership. The program is for girls of eleven to sixteen years. It offers to every girl fun, an opportunity to become acquainted with the out-of-doors, and to grow in the skill of the things in the home, and in other useful ways. The girl's progress is marked by different ranks, and recognition of successful efforts is given through a system of honors. The girls work in small groups under a leader, or guardian.

Another new group was formed last week with Mrs. H. A. Orvis as guardian. Mrs. Martin Cassell is the new guardian for the Oecea Group. Mrs. Philip Fisher's Litahni Group is getting ready for its Christmas giving. Mrs. Paul Hutchinson's new group, the Adkiya girls, met with her at her home on Wednesday afternoon for a happy social time. Miss Mildred Olson's Akiyuhapi group is planning its Christmas giving. Mrs. J. M. Winscott's and Miss Kathryn Adams' Otyokwa group met at Miss Adams' home Wednesday afternoon for a combination work and social time. The group cut out and began the work on some of the calico animals they are getting ready for Christmas.

Several of the groups are planning to spend next Saturday out at the Izaak Walton cabin, north of the Dundee road, and are eagerly looking forward to the fun of lending a hand on the work on the cabin. They are anticipating many good times there when the building is completed.

Miss Virginia Dunlap of Mrs. Fisher's Litahni group, who is working for her Torchbearer's rank, is leading a group of fifteen Blue-Birds, younger Camp Fire Girls, for the winter. This group gave a very successful party to the mothers of the girls, Friday afternoon, November 16th. A program of entertainment was put on entirely by the girls, and refreshments were served.

Christ Church Guild Will Send Box to Prisoners

Among the many activities of the Christ Church Woman's guild this Christmas time is a Christmas box to be sent to Sister Syble for the women prisoners at Joliet prison. She is asking for 100 bundles containing needle books or work bags, knitting or crocheting materials, playing cards, pencils or pads, soap or powder, or any other simple gift.

Anyone interested in this worthwhile work is asked to send some gift to Christ Church Parish House or to Mrs. Godfrey Atkin, 12 Indian Hill road, before December 10.

Miss Jane Crilly of 606 Provident road will celebrate her tenth birthday on Wednesday, December 5, by being hostess to twelve little girls at her home at a supper party from 4 until 7.

RIMLESS WHITE GOLD Glasses now most favored

A great betterment in eyeglass design has taken place in recent years.

Rimless glasses, in four styles of delicate, graceful design, feature fitting and youth enhancing, have supplanted in public favor the heavy shell-rimmed glasses formerly worn.

These rimless styles, the Puritan, Oval, Colonial and Leaf shape, come with inconspicuous white gold mountings. They are unobtrusive, they do not attract attention to themselves, hence to wear them is a principle of good taste. Compare your old glasses with these at any Almer Coe Store. There are now more than twenty styles that you may choose from.

Prices Range From $10 Up With Solid White Gold Mountings
