Joseph J. Siddall Dies of Explosion in Garage at Home

Joseph J. Siddall, 840 Grove street, Glencoe, died as the result of burns Sunday night in the garage at the rear of his home. The burns are believed to have been caused by an explosion which took place while he was investigating motor trouble. A neighbor saw the flash of light and heard the explosion.

Mr. Siddall was formerly a resident of Wilmette for many years and was very well known in the community. He moved to Glencoe only within the last few years. He was fifty years old and was treasurer of the C. F. Baum company, manufacturers of braids and tassels.

He was a member of the Illinois Naval reserve, and had enlisted as an able-bodied seaman at the time of the Spanish-American war. He was a member of one of the 13-inch gun crews on the U. S. S. Oregon and participated in the battle of Santiago de Cuba on July 3, 1899 as well as several other engagements.

Mrs. Siddall, who survives him, is known to many north shore persons as being a leader in Arden Shore work. The funeral services were held at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at his home and burial took place at the North Shore cemetery.

Charles Richmond Jacobs of Elder lane, Winnetka, was home last weekend from Dartmouth for the Dartmouth-Northwestern game.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rugg of 199 Birch road will leave early next week for New York City where they will make their home.
